

Contents

Contributors	vi
Acknowledgements	viii
Introduction: Out of Context Heidi Hansson	1
'Improvement is a Nation's Blessing': Elizabeth Hamilton's The Cottagers of Glenburnie in Ireland Jacqueline Belanger	17
Travels of a Lady of Fashion: The Literary Career of Lady Blessington (1789–1849) Riana O'Dwyer	35
The Art of Bookmaking: Selina Bunbury's Northern Journeys Maria Lindgren Leavenworth	55
'Factual Fictions': Representations of the Land Agitation in Nineteenth-Century Women's Fiction Margaret Kelleher	78
Hybridization as a Literary and Social Strategy: Mrs Hungerford's Molly Bawn Elisabeth Wennö	92
Patriot's Daughter, Politician's Wife: Gender and Nation in M. E. Francis's Miss Erin Heidi Hansson	109
Ireland: The Terra Incognita of the New Woman Project Tina O'Toole	125
The Art of Politics in Somerville and Ross's Fiction with Emphasis on their Final Collection of Stories, In Mr. Knox's Country Julie Anne Stevens	142
Bibliography	161
Notes and References	176
Index	201