

Contents

I	Research and Policymaking	1
	Educational Research and Policymaking	3
	The Swedish School Reforms: A Case Study in Policy-oriented Research	11
	Educational Research and Policymaking: An International Perspective	21
	Policy Implications of Cross-national Education Surveys	39
II	Educational Reforms	51
	Strategies of Implementing School Reforms	53
	Strategies of Educational Innovation	59
	Social Determinants of the Comprehensive School	71
	Why Comprehensive Education?	83
III	Equality and Meritocracy	91
	Second Thoughts on Equality in Education	93
	The Dilemma Between Equality and Excellence	105
	Implications for Educational Policy of Individual Differences in Learning Ability: A Comparative Perspective	119
IV	Impact of Education on Career	133
	Lifelong Learning in the "Educative Society"	135
	Talent, Opportunity and Career	147
	Employment of the Highly Educated in the Society of Today and Tomorrow	161
V	International and Comparative Dimensions	169
	The World Community of Academics: Its Nature and Responsibilities	171
	Internationalizing Education: The Case of Sweden	179
	The International Context of Educational Research	189
	An International Research Venture in Retrospect: The IEA Surveys	199
	Appraising the Quality of Secondary Education: Cross-national Assessments of Achievements	211

Contents

VI Present Trends and Future Perspectives	219
A Twenty-five Year Perspective on General Theories in Education	221
Purposes of Futurologic Studies in Education	235
School as an Institution in a Highly Technological Society	245
INDEX	259