

Contents

Executive Summary	1
Part I Setting the Stage	15
1 The Context of Special and Gifted Education	17
2 Representation of Minority Students in Special and Gifted Education	35
Part II Pregnancy to Preschool: Early Influences on Cognition and Behavior	91
3 Influences on Cognitive and Behavioral Development	93
4 Early Intervention Programs	141
Part III From General to Specialized Education: Why and How Students Are Placed	167
5 The General Education Context	169
6 The Legal Context and the Referral Process	213
7 Assessment Practices, Definitions, and Classification Criteria	243
8 Alternative Approaches to Assessment	279

Part IV Improving Outcomes	321
9 Weighing the Benefits of Placement	323
10 Recommendations	357
References	386
Biographical Sketches	463
Index	469