

Contents

---

Acknowledgements	ix
Introduction	x
1 The Theory and Practice of Social Work	1
The Methods of Social Work
The Principles of Social Work
2 Social Work's Western Origins	17
The Beginnings of Social Work Education in Britain and America
The Diversification of Social Work Practice
American Theoretical Innovations
Social Work in Europe and Other Industrial Countries
3 Colonialism, Modernisation and Social Work	40
Modernisation and Development
Modernisation and Social Policy
Modernisation and Social Work
4 Social Work Education in the Third World	61
Patterns of Professional Social Work Education in the Third World
American Influences on Social Work Education in the Third World
Current Trends in Social Work Education – A Recent Study
5 Social Work Practice and the Problem of Cultural Diversity	85
The Value Content of Western Social Work
The Search for Cross-Cultural Universality
Practical Problems of the Cross-Cultural Application of Social Work
6 Social Work Practice and the Problem of Underdevelopment	105
The Social Problems of Underdevelopment
The Challenge to Social Work
The Problems of Social Work Practice – A Recent Study
7 Development Roles for Social Work in the Third World	128
Social Work and the Problems of Modernisation
Social Work and Family Planning
Social Work and Rural Development
Social Work and Political Action
Social Work and Social Planning

8 Social Work in the Third World – The Need for a Pragmatic Approach	150
The Problems of Social Work in the Third World
Developing Appropriate Roles for Practice – The Case of the Philippines
Developing Appropriate Social Work Education – The Case of Sierra Leone
Elements of a Pragmatic Approach
Notes and References	175
Index	189