

CONTENTS

Acknowledgements	v
Prologue: a question of injustice	vii
1 INTRODUCTION	1
Social work in Smortham	5
The property-owning democracy	9
Some case examples	13
A note on the examples	22
References	24
2 THE RIGHT AND THE GOOD	25
The liberal solution	29
Shared decisions	44
Conclusions	47
References	50
3 OUTCOMES, ASSETS AND CITIZENSHIP	52
Ethical outcomes	53
Interests and choices	58
Interests and ethics	62
Ethical democracy	66
Citizenship	68
Social workers and citizens	73
Conclusions	77
References	78
4 RIGHTS, POWERS AND RULES	81
The problem of child abuse	84
Morality as the following of rules	102
Conclusions	106
References	109

5	SHARING AND CO-OPERATION	112
	Shared projects: the household	115
	Roles and fairness	118
	Relevant differences	123
	Shared projects: the team	127
	Two rejoinders	132
	Conclusions	135
	References	136
6	COMMUNITY AND DEMOCRACY	137
	Defining responsibilities	140
	Social choice	143
	Democracy	146
	Levels of democratic decision-making	152
	Social workers and their clients	157
	Conclusions	163
	References	165
7	MORAL REASONING AND JUDGEMENT	168
	Ethics in the middle ground	172
	Relationships and moral reasoning	175
	Negotiation and counselling	178
	Crises and moral dilemmas	182
	Criteria for non-manipulative negotiation	186
	The nature of obligations	191
	Injustices and defections	197
	Conclusions	203
	References	205
8	CONVERSATIONS	207
	Michael	207
	Donna	211
	Louise	215
	Brian	220
	Samantha	224
	Joan	228
	George	232
	Reference	236
	Index	237