

Contents

Preface	vii
Foreword by HRH The Duke of Gloucester	ix
Chapter 1: The Setting	i
Public opinion and world affairs; the educational debate; the world studies 'family'; peace studies; the role of voluntary bodies
Chapter 2: Origins in War	41
The birth of CEWC; the concept of world citizenship; the founders; the inaugural conference; institutional identity and definition; work amidst wartime difficulties
Chapter 3: The United Nations and the Preservation of Peace	75
CEWC's plans for peace; the proliferation of wartime planning; the influence of CEWC in the war years; the UNA connection; promoting the UN and UNESCO
Chapter 4: Administration and Finance	119
The constitution; administration, metropolitan and provincial; expenditure and self-generated income; financial crises and government support
Chapter 5: Services Provided	139
International contacts; resources for schools; meetings and activities; the Christmas and Annual Conferences
Chapter 6: Conclusions	169
A year in the life of CEWC; objectives and objectivity; meeting needs and exerting influence; summing-up
Appendices	195
Note on Sources	219
Index	221