1 From Religion to Risk Management: What to Do When Facing Uncertainty? 1
Reuven Brenner and Gabrielle A. Brenner

Which shows how societies dealt with uncertainty and risk when their population was small and immobile, and when it grew; why traditions and customs can be wisdom, but often become wrong when circumstances change.

Origins of Lasting Prejudice 3
Volatile Beliefs 5
From Religion to Risk, from Lots to Betting 6
Chance and Providence: Upstairs, Downstairs 13
Conclusion 15

2 Anything Wrong with Gambling as a Pastime? 17
Reuven Brenner and Gabrielle A. Brenner

Which shows how false ideas about risk, gambling, and pastimes gain currency.

What Did Gambling Have to Do with Military Readiness? 18
Prohibitions on New Ways of Having Fun 20
English Prohibitions on Poor People’s Pastimes 21
If Not Cockfights, How About a Drink? 24
Secular Theories Condemning Gambling 26
Contents

8 How Gamblers and Risk-Takers Correct the Future 194
Reuven Brenner and Gabrielle A. Brenner

Which shows that the story in this book is a history of humankind, told from the perspective of gamblers, risk-takers, and those who finance them; it tells the story of people who leap into the unknown, hoping to leapfrog their fellows.

Betting on Ideas, and Matters of Trial and Error 198
How Did Some Societies Come to Tolerate Risk-Takers and Gamblers? 200
Capital Markets and Models of Society 204
