

Contents

|   |     |
|---|-----|
| NICHOLAS WHITE AND KARL LEYDECKERIntroduction: After Intimacy   | 7   |
| KARL LEYDECKERDivorcing Women: Divorce and the Rise of the Women's Novelin Germany, 1784–1848   | 11  |
| BARBARA LECKIE'One of the Greatest Social Revolutions of Our Time':The Matrimonial Causes Act, Divorce Court Journalism,and the Victorian Novel | 31  |
| NICHOLAS WHITEParallel Lives and Novel Series: French Women's Writing onDivorce from the Second Empire to the First World War                       | 57  |
| JANET GARTONAfter the Door Slams: The Depiction of Divorce in Nineteenth-Century Scandinavia  | 93  |
| ANNE HUMPHERYSThe Three of Them: The Scene of 'Divorce' in Nineteenth-Century English Fiction   | 113 |
| DEBRA ANN MACCOMBIs Nothing Sacred? Dissolving Bo(u)nds in American DivorceFiction, 1880–1920   | 135 |
| HELENA GOSCILOFrom Stigma to Enigma: Adultery, Triangulation, and Divorceà la Russe   | 163 |

|   |     |
|---|-----|
| PAGE DOUGHERTY DELANO   |     |
| After Cavell: Continual Ban, Continual Divorce in AmericanFilms, 1939–61                  | 183 |
| LYNNE PEARCE  |     |
| After the Twilight: Intimacy and its Demise in Late Twentieth-Century Lesbian Romance     | 215 |
| TRACI PIPKINS   |     |
| Numbed Suburban Lifestyles Versus Gluttonous Self-Love:Woody Allen, Marriage, and Divorce | 235 |
| JANET MCCABE AND KIM AKASS  |     |
| Married to the Mob: Separation and Divorce in The Sopranos                             | 257 |
| NOTES ON CONTRIBUTORS   | 277 |
| INDEX   | 281 |