

CONTENTS

Preface	V
Josef KREINER
Japan's "Long 16th Century" - Japan at the Transition from the Middle Ages to the Early Modern Period and the Coming of the Europeans
Josef KREINER	1
The Spanish-Dutch War, Japanese Trade, and World Politics
Reinhard WENDT	43
Gold, Silver, and Copper in the European Economies and Their External Trade Relations from the End of the 15th to the End of the 16th Century
Ekkehard WESTERMANN	63
Bound for Asia: Some Aspects of the Personnel of the Dutch East India Company
Roelof VAN GELDER	91
The Dutch Timber Trade in the Rhineland During the 17th and 18th Centuries
Dietrich EBELING	103
Timber from the Rhine Area: Its Use on Shipbuilding in the Dutch Republic in the 17th and 18th Centuries. An Inquiry into the Quantity of Timber Used for Shipbuilding
Leendert VAN PROOIJJE	119

Those Headstrong People! Dutch Dealings with Japanese Lacquerers Cynthia VIALLÉ	141
German Clay Pipes on the World Market Martin KÜGLER and Ralf KLUTTIG-ALTMANN	155
A Note on Clay Pipes in Japan in the Edo Period Anneli WALLENTOWITZ	193