Contents

Preface
Measurements and Conventions
Maps

Introduction

Part One: Asserting Hegemony over the Homeland: Dynastic Objectives and the Creation of an Agrarian Order, 1644–1700
1 Manchuria's Place in the Early Imperial Project
2 The Agrarian Order in Late Seventeenth-Century Manchuria
3 The State in the Village

Part Two: Peasant and State in the Eighteenth and Nineteenth Centuries
4 The State and Agrarian Property Relations
5 The Social Basis of the Transformation of Agrarian Manchuria
6 Wage Labor and Wage Relations in Qing Manchuria

Part Three: State, Trade, and Peasant Agriculture: Developments in the Manchurian Economy
7 Household Formation, Property Division, and Agricultural Change in the Peasant Economy
8 The Content and Growth of the Manchurian Trade, 1700–1860 211
9 State, Merchant, and the Organization of the Manchurian Trade 239

Conclusion: Critiques and Alternative 277

Appendix A: Population and Cultivated Area in Qing Manchuria 307
Appendix B: Grain Yields in the Qing and Republican Eras 313

Notes 319
References and Sources 371
Chinese Glossary 401
Index 407