

CONTENTS

	Page
List of Tables	v
List of Figures	viii
Acknowledgments	ix
Foreword	xi
Chapter 1	What do people get in Scotland? 1
Chapter 2	Who wants what kind of pre-school provision? 26
Chapter 3	What do parents know about pre-school facilities? 44
Chapter 4	What do parents want of pre-school facilities? 63
Chapter 5	The extent to which parents want to be involved 80
Chapter 6	Why are there non-users, irregular attenders and drop-outs? 94
Chapter 7	What does it mean? 107
Chapter 8	Summary 118
Appendix I:
A.	Interview study of the influence of provision on parental demand and usage 121
B.	Interview schedule for mothers in outskirts, city centre and rural areas, with a child who has not yet started primary school 130
Appendix II:
A.	Intervention study of the role of knowledge in the usage of pre-school facilities 135
B.	Questionnaire completed by research team members when they returned to the house where leaflets had been delivered the previous day 143

	C. Questionnaire completed by mothers after watching a video-tape presentation describing the main characteristics of different types of pre-school provision	145
Appendix III:	A. A study of non-users, infrequent users and unsuccessful applicants to pre-school facilities	149
	B. Interview schedule for non-users, irregular attenders, and waiting list children in an area with a shortage of pre-school facilities	153
Appendix IV	Extent of parental participation in play-groups (Table 41)	155
References		156