

Contents

Acknowledgments	vii
1 Introduction	1
Rethinking the Socratic Dialogue	3
Bakhtin, Dialogue, and the Rhetorical Tradition	6
Dialogical Rhetoric as Testing, Contesting, and Creating Ideas	12
2 The Traditional Socrates: Dialogue, Rhetoric, and Dialectic	17
Socrates' Life and Work	18
The Philosophical/Rhetorical Tradition: From Dialogue to Dialectic and Rhetoric	21
The British Empirical Tradition: Logic and Socratic Negative Dialectic	28
The Dialogical Tradition: Testing, Contesting, and Creating Ideas	32
3 Mikhail M. Bakhtin, Dialogical Rhetoric, and the Socratic Dialogue	37
Bakhtin's Life and Works	38
Dialogical Rhetoric as an Exchange of Utterances	40
Bakhtin and the Socratic Dialogue	45
The Socratic Dialogue as Novelistic	51
Reading Texts Contextually and Extratextually	63
4 Cultural Conflict and the Testing of Persons and Ideas in the Laches	67
Cultural Conflict from Homer to Socrates	70
Cultural Conflict in the Homeric Epics	72
Anacrisis and Syncrisis: Testing Persons and Ideas	76
5 Truth as Dialogic: Creating a Cultural Hybrid in the Protagoras	95
Protagoras versus Socrates?	98
Cooperative Discussion: Creating a Cultural Hybrid	99
Cooperation or Contestation?	115

6	Dialogue as Carnival: Contesting Cultural and Rhetorical Practices in the Gorgias	117
	Gorgias versus Socrates?	120
	Carnivalistic Debate: Contesting Cultural and Rhetorical Practices	124
	Dialogue on the Threshold: The Contest of the Just Life	138
Epilogue	Dialogical Rhetoric in Print and Digital Media	141
	Cultural Conflict and Old/New Media	142
	Testing Cultural Differences in Printed Texts	146
	Contesting Cultural Authority in Digital Discussion Groups	150
	Creating a Digital Community across a Cultural Divide	156
Notes		163
Works Cited		205
Index		221