CONTENTS

LIST OF ABBREVIATIONS vii
PREFACE xiii

CHAPTER ONE
Introduction and Summary Argument 1
  Why Fight about Corporate Governance? 3
  Great Variance and the "Great Reversals" 4
  Putting the Pieces Together: In Search of a Political Explanation 10
  Policy Consequences 12
  Plan of Attack 14

CHAPTER TWO
Governance Patterns: What Causes What? 15
  Outcomes: Dependent Variables and Patterns of Control 16
  Capitalist Economic Policies, Minority Shareholder Protections, and Degrees of Coordination 20
  Politics: Preferences and Institutions 22
  Conclusion 26

CHAPTER THREE
Framing Incentives: The Economics and Law Tradition 27
  Origins of the Debate 28
  Incomplete Contracts and Private Order 30
  Law and Regulation: Minority Shareholder Protections—Information, Oversight,
  Control, and Incentives 39
  Varieties of Capitalism: Degrees of Coordination in Market Economies 51
  Conclusion 55

CHAPTER FOUR
Politics: Preferences and Institutions 57
  Mapping Financial Interests on Political Processes: A Causal Model 57
  Preferences and Coalitions among Owners, Managers, and Workers 59
  Political Institutions: Majoritarian and Consensus Mechanisms 67
  Alternative Arguments: Legal Family and Economic Sociology 83
  Conclusion 93

CHAPTER FIVE
Preference Cleavages 1: Class Conflict 95
  Section 1: Owners and Managers Dominate Workers 96
    The Investor Model 96
    Analytic Narrative 123
    Korea: Changing Institutions, Shifting Preferences 123
Section 2: Workers Dominate Owners and Managers
The Labor Power Model
Analytic Narrative
Sweden: The Exemplar of the Labor Power Model?
Conclusion

CHAPTER SIX
Preference Cleavages 2: Sectoral Conflict

Section 1: Cross-Class Coalitions
The Corporatist Model: Workers and Managers Dominate Owners
Analytic Narrative
Germany: From Corporatist Bargain to a Transparency Coalition
Japan: Concentration without Owners
The Netherlands: The Evolution of "Poldermodel" Corporatism

Section 2: Building Coalitions in Authoritarian Systems
The Oligarchy Model: Owners Dominate Workers and Managers
Analytic Narratives
Russia: Oligarchs and Politics
China: "Selectorate-Electorate" Coalition
Singapore: Shareholder Protections with "Guided" Democracy
Conclusion

CHAPTER SEVEN

Section 1: Workers and Owners Dominate Managers
From Class Conflict to Corporatist Compromise
Analytic Narratives
Chile: Authoritarian Roots of the Transparency Coalition
Malaysia: Ethnicity and Democracy in Governance Politics

Section 2: Managers Dominate Owners and Workers
"Managerism"
Analytic Narratives
The United States: A Contested Path from Oligarchy to MSP
United Kingdom: The Power of Majoritarian Political Institutions?
France: Without the State, Who Is in Control?
Conclusion

CHAPTER EIGHT
Conclusion: Going Forward
Questions and Answers: What Explains Variance?
Shortcomings and Guideposts for Future Research
Conclusion: Fighting over the Governance Debate

DATA APPENDIX

BIBLIOGRAPHY

INDEX