
Contents

List of colour plates	ix
List of figures	x
Preface	xiii
1 Literacy, identity and futures	1
Literacy in the contemporary context	1
Some necessary tools for rethinking	5
Literacy	8
A social semiotic theory of representation and communication	10
Some characteristics of speech and of writing	14
2 'My Gawd, I made it like Australia': making meaning in many media	18
Representing the world	18
How real is real? Or, imagining in different modes	24
'What is to hand'	29
Design and intention	33
'Mere copying'	37
Expression in many modes: synaesthesia	38
3 Making sense of the world:
'The seagulls are reading the newspaper'	44
Some current ideas and debates about reading	44
How can we get evidence for reading?	48
What is reading? Some principles	49
Reading and the context of culture	58
What does reading mean? A brief history of the word	63
4 Drawing letters and writing dinosaurs: children's early engagement with print	65
Making paths into writing	65

What's in a name? Print as a complex system of signs	66
Drawing print: a child's view of the written environment	73
Drawing ideas, or drawing sounds: the logics of writing	82
Display and visual space: the design of the page	85
5 'You made it like a crocodile': a theory of children's meaning-making	87
Developing a framework	87
Interest	88
Motivated signs	91
Transformation and transformative action	94
Multimodality	96
Representation and communication	99
Reading	101
Resources for making meaning	104
Imagination, cognition and affect	108
6 Literacy and theories of language	111
The present common sense in theory and in practice	111
What is literacy? Unravelling some complexities	116
Speech and writing: 'drawing sounds'	122
Designing meanings	127
Structures and meanings of visual communication	130
7 Teaching literacy, learning literacy	139
'Moving into literacy': childish principles	139
A new literacy curriculum?	146
The shape of the new literacy curriculum?	150
8 Futures	157
The current situation	157
New curricula, new aims	162
Designing futures: what do we want?	164
Sources and contexts	165
Bibliography	170
Index	172