

Contents

Acknowledgments	ix
Introduction	1
Part I: Sartre on Race and Racism
1. Sartre on Racism: From Existential Phenomenology to Globalization and “the New Racism” Jonathan Judaken	23
2. Skin for Sale: Race and The Respectful Prostitute Steve Martinot	55
3. The Persistence of Colonialism: Sartre, the Left, and Identity in Postcolonial France, 1970–1974 Paige Arthur	77
Part II: Sartre and Antiracist Theory
4. Race: From Philosophy to History Christian Delacampagne	99
5. Sartre and Levinas: Philosophers against Racism and Antisemitism Robert Bernasconi	113
6. European Intellectuals and Colonial Difference: Césaire and Fanon beyond Sartre and Foucault George Ciccariello-Maher	129

Part III: Sartre and Africana Existentialism

7. Sartre and Black Existentialism 157
Lewis R. Gordon
8. Sartre and South African Apartheid 173
Mabogo P. More

Part IV: Sartre and the Postcolonial Turn

9. Difference/Indifference: Sartre, Glissant, and the Race of Francophone Literature 193
Richard H. Watts
10. Violence, Nonviolence: Sartre on Fanon 211
Judith Butler
- Contributors 233
- Index 237