

Contents

1 Introduction	1
Vietnam's Transition and the Emergence of Entrepreneurs	1
The Mystery of Vietnamese Capitalism and the Puzzle of Transition	4
Beyond New Institutionalism: New Social Cognition Theory	9
The Research	20

Part I: The New Entrepreneurs

2 To Become an Entrepreneur in Ho Chi Minh City	31
Sociability, Networks, and Political Connections	31
Constraints in the Economic Environment	34
Social Position of the Case Firms	45
3 Who Succeeds as an Entrepreneur in Ho Chi Minh City	53
The Importance of Institutional Arrangements and Intermediaries	55
Succeeding as an Entrepreneur in Ho Chi Minh City	78

Part II: Institutional Change

4 The Social Construction of Entrepreneurs	89
Fiscal Socialism: Power and the Vietnamese Variety of Capitalism	90
Resistance and the Shaping of Social Cognition	99
5 Social Cognition	110
How People Learn and Change	111
The Centrality of Cognition in Institutional Change	117
6. Comparisons with Other Transition Economies	131
The Lack of Entrepreneurs in Hanoi	132
Unsocialable Entrepreneurs in Warsaw, Poland	150
Chinese Fiscal Socialism	160
Essentials of the Transition and Varieties of Capitalism	162
7. Conclusion	167
Learning from the New Capitalists	169
The Nature of Capitalism	176
Cognitive Processes and Implications for International Development	178
Implications for Research	183
Appendix: Method of Study	186
References	193
Index	203