

Brief Contents

Guided tour	xvi
Preface	xviii
Acknowledgements	xx

1. Introducing human resource management	1
2. Organising a workforce	25
3. Recruitment and retention	46
4. Selection	75
5. Performance management	99
6. People development	125
7. Reward management	152
8. Employee relations	181
9. Employment regulation	201
10. Diversity in employment	224
11. Human resource strategy	247
12. Leading people	273
13. The HR contribution	297
14. Managing people internationally	317
15. The future of HRM	343

Managing people: fundamental skills

367

1. Face-to-face skills in management	368
2. The selection interview	381
3. The appraisal interview	393
4. Coaching	404
5. The disciplinary interviews	412

Notes on certain key terms	420
----------------------------	-----

Index	428
-------	-----

Contents

Guided tour	xvi
Preface	xviii
Acknowledgements	xx
1. Introducing human resource management	1
Defining human resource management	3
HRM and the achievement of organisational effectiveness	7
Major trends in the HRM business environment	9
Major themes in contemporary HRM practice	11
Key debate: The state of the psychological contract	15
Summary propositions	21
General discussion topics	22
Further reading	22
References	22
2. Organising a workforce	25
Workforce organisation	26
Flexibility for organisational benefit	27
Key debate: Work-life integration	33
Summary propositions	42
General discussion topics	43
Further reading	43
References	43
3. Recruitment and retention	46
Recruiting in a tight labour market	48
Methods of recruitment	49

Employer branding	57
Staff turnover rates and trends	59
Staff retention strategies	62
Key debate: The significance of skills shortages in the UK	67
Summary propositions	72
General discussion topics	72
Further reading	73
References	73
 4. Selection	 75
Selection as a two-way process	76
Selection criteria	77
Selection methods	79
Final selection decision making	93
Key debate: Validity and use of selection methods	93
Summary propositions	95
General discussion topics	96
Further reading	96
References	97
 5. Performance management	 99
Introducing performance management	100
Stages in a performance management system	102
Implementation and critique of performance management	109
Evaluation of performance management systems	112
Key debate: 360-degree feedback	112
Summary propositions	121
General discussion topics	121
Further reading	122
References	122
 6. People development	 125
The UK learning and development context	126
The value of learning and development to organisations and individuals	128

The line manager and learning and development	129
The use of behavioural competencies in learning and development	133
Methods of learning and development	137
Key debate: Is e-learning the future of learning and development?	144
Summary propositions	149
General discussion topics	149
Further reading	150
References	150
 7. Reward management	 152
Management objectives	154
Setting base pay	155
The elements of payment	159
Incentives	161
Benefits	165
Total reward	170
Key debate: Does PRP work?	172
Summary propositions	177
General discussion topics	178
Further reading	179
References	179
 8. Employee relations	 181
Strategic choices	183
Employee involvement	186
Terminology	186
Information sharing	189
Consultation	193
Key debate: The role and future of trade unions	195
Summary propositions	198
General discussion topics	199
Further reading	199
References	200

9. Employment regulation	201
A regulatory revolution	203
Discrimination law	204
Unfair dismissal law	210
Health and safety law	216
Family-friendly employment law	218
Key debate: Is employment law a benefit or a burden for businesses?	219
Summary propositions	222
General discussion topics	222
Further reading	223
References	223
 10. Diversity in employment	 224
What do we mean by diversity in employment?	225
Why is diversity in employment important?	227
Implications for line managers	227
Achieving successful diversity in organisations	230
Key debate: Managing diversity or emphasising equality?	236
Summary propositions	243
General discussion topics	243
Further reading	244
Web links	244
References	244
 11. Human Resource strategy	 247
The nature of HR strategy and its link with organisational strategy	248
Theoretical perspectives of strategic HRM	250
Key debate: What are the people management implications of downsizing and where does the line manager fit in?	261
The line manager as downsizing agent	268
Summary propositions	270
General discussion topics	270
Further reading	270

Web link	271
References	271
12. Leading people	273
Some definitions: Leadership and management	274
What are the traits of leaders and effective leaders?	275
What is the 'best way to lead'? Leadership styles and behaviours	278
Do leaders need different styles for different situations?	280
Developing leadership skills	284
Key debate: Do organisations need heroic or empowering leaders?	286
Summary propositions	294
General discussion topics	294
Further reading	294
Web link	295
References	295
13. The HR contribution	297
The role of line managers in HR	299
Analysis of HR roles and structures	302
Outsourcing HR	307
Key debate: HR shared services – what's best for line managers and employees?	309
Summary propositions	314
General discussion topics	314
Further reading	315
Web link	315
References	315
14. Managing people internationally	317
The HRM dimension to international management	318
Different ways of working overseas	326
Key debate: Managing an international workforce, away or at home?	334
Summary propositions	339
General discussion topics	340

Further reading	341
Web links	341
References	341

15. The future of HRM 343

The labour market	345
Competitive pressures	352
Regulation	354
Key debate: Future contractual arrangements	360
Summary propositions	363
General discussion topics	364
Further reading	364
References	364

Managing people: fundamental skills 367

1. Face-to-face skills in management 368

Why managers need to develop skills in various face-to-face situations	368
Effectiveness in interaction	369
Different types of interaction	373
Fundamental skills in setting the tone	373
Fundamental skills in listening	374
Fundamental skills in questioning	375
Fundamental skills in feedback	377
Summary propositions	378
General discussion topics	379
Further reading	379
Web links	379
Exercises	380

2. The selection interview 381

Varieties of selection interview	381
The purpose of the selection interview	382

Interviewing strategy	384
The selection interview sequence	385
Summary propositions	391
General discussion topics	391
Further reading	391
Web links	392
Practical exercise in selection interviewing	392
 3. The appraisal interview	 393
Appraisal problems	394
The appraisal interview style	396
The appraisal interview sequence	396
Making appraisal work	400
Summary propositions	400
General discussion topics	401
Further reading	401
Web links	402
Exercise	402
 4. Coaching	 404
The scope and potential of coaching	404
The career anchor	406
The qualities of the coach	407
Summary propositions	410
General discussion topics	410
Further reading	410
Web links	411
Exercise	411
 5. The disciplinary interviews	 412
The nature of disciplinary interviewing	413
The discipline sequence	414
Summary propositions	418

Contents

General discussion topics	418
Further reading	418
Web links	419
Notes on certain key terms	420
Index	428