

Yale French Studies

NUMBER 114

Writing and the Image Today

---

|                                 |     |  |
|---------------------------------|-----|--|
| JAN BAETENS ANDARI J. BLATT | 1   | Editors' Preface: Writing and theImage Today   |
| PATRICK M. BRAY                 | 4   | Aesthetics in the Shadow of No Towers:Reading Virilio in the Twenty-FirstCentury   |
| JEAN-JACQUES THOMAS             | 18  | Photographic Memories of French Poetry:Denis Roche, Jean-Marie Gleize  |
| SJEF HOUPPERMANS                | 37  | Tanguy Viel: From Word to ImageTranslated from the French by DonaldNicholson-Smith   |
| NINA PARISH                     | 51  | From Book to Page to Screen: Poetry andNew Media   |
| JEAN H. DUFFY                   | 67  | Closed Up and Close(-)Up: Jean Rouaud'sBooks of Revelation   |
| LIESBETH KORTHALS ALTES         | 80  | Traces: Writing the Visual in Daewoo byFrançois Bon   |
| JAN BAETENS                     | 95  | Of Graphic Novels and Minor Cultures:The Fréon Collective  |
| HUGO FREY                       | 116 | "For All To See": Yvan Alagbé's Nègresjaunes and the Representation of theContemporary Social Crisis in theBanlieue |
| VINAY SWAMY                     | 130 | The Telereal Republic: Nation, Narration,and Popular Culture in Benmiloud'sAllah superstar                                      |
| ARI J. BLATT                    | 144 | The Revolution Will Be Televised, orDidier Daeninckx's Cathode Fictions  |