

Contents

Preface	ix
The Author	xvii
1. Variety, Not Uniformity	1
2. Michel de Montaigne: Profiting from Scholarly Companionship, Reading, Travel, and Affairs of State	14
3. “He”: Using Tutors, Colleagues, and Self-Disciplined Practice	32
4. Henry David Thoreau: Engaging in Small-Group Discussion, Self-Examination, and Observation	53
5. Billy Graham: Developing Oratory as an Art Form	75

6.	Florence: Studying the Resources of a Center of Culture	98
7.	Edward Everett: Establishing a Formal System of Education	125
8.	William Osler: Creating a Complete Educational Plan for Professionals	145
9.	Traditional Conceptions, Goals, and Forms of Learning	171
10.	Implications for Educators	205
	Index	235