

Contents

Preface	vii
Notes on Contributors	viii
1 Armed Forces and Society: a Framework for Analysis Timothy Edmunds, Anthony Forster and Andrew Cottey	1
Part I Central Europe
2 The Polish Armed Forces and Society Paul Latawski	25
3 The Integration of the Czech Armed Forces into Society Marie Vlachová	41
4 Armed Forces and Society in Slovakia Marybeth Peterson Ulrich	56
5 The Armed Forces in Hungarian Society: Finding a Role? Pál Dunay	76
Part II The Baltic States
6 Armed Forces and Society in Latvia: a Decade of Development Jan Arveds Trapans	97
7 Armed Forces and Society in Lithuania Andrius Krivas	112
Part III Southeastern Europe
8 Ahead of the Curve: the Military–Society Relationship in Romania Larry L. Watts	131
9 Still the People’s Army? Armed Forces and Society in Bulgaria Laura Cleary	153

10	'La Petite Muette' and Suspicious Controller: Armed Forces and Society in Slovenia Ljubica Jelušič and Marjan Malešič	169
11	A Crisis of Legitimacy: the Military and Society in Croatia Alex J. Bellamy	185
12	Legitimacy and the Military Revisited: Civil–Military Relations and the Future of Yugoslavia James Gow and Ivan Zveržanovski	203
Part IV The Former Soviet Union
13	The Army and Society in Ukraine James Sherr	219
Part V Conclusion
14	Conclusion: Patterns and Trends in Military–Society Relations in Postcommunist Europe Timothy Edmunds, Anthony Forster and Andrew Cottey	237
	Index	258