

Contents

List of Tables and Figures	vii
Notes on Contributors	viii
Transcription Conventions	xi
Introduction	xiii
Sue Garton and Keith Richards

Part I Starting Out

1 Deconstructing the Discourse: Understanding the Feedback Event Fiona Copland	5
2 The Design of Post-Observation Feedback and Its Impact on Student Teachers Nur Kurtoglu Hooton	24
3 Learning to Talk the Talk: Conversation Analysis as a Tool for Induction of Trainee Teachers Paul Seedhouse	42
Reflections on Starting Out Wei Liu	58

Part II Becoming Experienced

4 Teacher Beliefs and Interaction in the Language Classroom Sue Garton	67
5 Teachers Being Observed: Coming to Terms with Classroom Appraisal Amanda Howard	87
6 Going Outside the Classroom Muna Morris-Adams	105

Reflections on Becoming Experienced Maneerat Tarnpichprasert	123
Part III New Horizons
7 Supporting Teacher Development on the Web Phil Quirke	135
8 'Metaphors keep cropping up': Dialogic Features of Metaphor in Exploratory Research Talk Steve Mann	151
9 Making the Break: Establishing a New School Keith Richards	173
Reflections on New Horizons Jerry Talandis Jr.	192
Part IV Passing on the Knowledge
10 Developing as a Professional in Cameroon: Challenges and Visions Kuchah Kuchah	203
11 Becoming a Writer: Community Membership and Discursive Literacy Sue Wharton	218
12 Discourses in Search of Coherence: An Autobiographical Perspective Julian Edge	232
Reflections on Passing on the Knowledge Fotini Vassiliki Kuloheri	248
Index	257