

Contents

Foreword	1
Jacques Durand et Chantal Lyche: Phonologie multidimensionnelle et phonologie du français	3
Jean-Luc Azra: Structure syllabique et gestes articulatoires: application au français	33
Hans Basbøll: The feature composition of French schwa and its relation to the "full" vowels	61
Philip Carr: Fixed and floating consonants, nasalisation and /e/ adjustment in Standard French: a Government Phonology approach	73
Daan de Jong: La sociophonologie de la liaison orléanaise	95
Elisabeth Delais: Rythme et structure prosodique en français	131
Jürgen Klausenburger: How abstract was / is French phonology? A twenty-five year retrospective	151
Chantal Lyche: Government Phonology and s+C clusters in French	167
Michael L. Mazzola: Indirect phonology and French segments	191
Jean-Pierre Y. Montreuil: On prosodization	211

Marc Plénat: L'”extramétricité” des voyelles initiales	239
Mary Ellen Scullen: On using moras to analyse liaison and vowel nasalisation	259
Joëlle Van Eibergen et Rabia Belrhali: Etude statistique du /ə/	277