

CONTENTS

Introduction	1
Chapter One
L'illusion comique by Pierre Corneille	5
A. L'illusion comique in the Twentieth Century: An Anachronistic Text	5
B. Theatrum mundi versus the Theatricality of Theater	12
The Director/Playwright	16
The Narrator: Dorante as Alter-Ego of Alcandre	24
The Spectator: Pridamant as Metaphoric Audience	27
Audience Response	33
The Actors	51
C. The Antiphrasis and the Antonomasia of “ un étrange monstre ”	59
The Emergence of a Literary Critic in the 1630's	60
Chapter Two
Le neveu de Rameau : Content as Hybrid	81
A. The Shape-Shifting Text of Le neveu de Rameau	82
B. Rameau Studies in the Twentieth Century	86
C. The Structuring Chess? “One Up on the Other”	90
Movement	91
Uncertainty	94
Plural Representation	98
Confrontation and Struggle	104
Tension	106
Elimination	110
D. Contrefaire : The Verb and the Art of Rameau	112
Contrefaire as Rameau's Art	113
Contrefaire as Rameau's Struggle for Survival	115
	117

Contrefaire as Rameau's Struggle for Survival	117
Contrefaire as a Contorted Vision	119
Narration as a Literary Act of Contrefaire	120
The Pejorative of Contrefaire — "To Ape"	122
Contrefaire Between Life and Text	123

Chapter Three

La nuit est aussi un soleil:

The Problematic Literary Hybridization 133

A. Dislocation in La nuit est aussi un soleil 138

Linguistic and Cultural Dislocation 140

Fantasy and Mental Dislocation 146

B. Fantasy Marked by Miscommunication 151

C. Glossary 157

Conclusion

Illusion, Parasitism and Dissociation 167

Bibliography 171

Index 215