

Contents

1	Explorations in peer tutoring Sinclair Goodlad and Beverley Hirst	1
2	Success and failure in peer tutoring experiments Carol Taylor Fitz-Gibbon	26
3	Controlled evaluation of the effects of peer tutoring on the tutors: are the 'learning by teaching' theories viable? Mary Kennedy	58
4	PERACH: A nation-wide student tutorial programme Barbara Fresko and Amos Carmeli	73
5	Cambridge STIMULUS Toni Beardon	82
6	Tutoring as field-based learning: some New Zealand developments John Jones	98
7	Experience of proctoring over three years at Nottingham Polytechnic B L Button, R Sims and L White	110
8	An experiment in same-age peer tutoring in higher education: some observations concerning the repeated experience of tutoring or being tutored Nancy Falchikov	120
9	Parental tutoring and reciprocal same-age peer tutoring G R Arblaster, C R Butler, A L Taylor and M. Pitchford	143
10	Peer tutored Paired Reading: outcome data from ten projects Keith Topping	154
11	Cross-age tutoring – a controlled evaluation using poor readers in a comprehensive school Mary Kennedy	168

12	Special education students as tutors: a review and analysis Russell Osguthorpe and Thomas Scruggs	176
13	The Exploratory pilot, a peer tutor? The interpreter's role in an interactive science and technology centre Melanie Quin	194
14	Peer tutoring, peer collaboration and the development of a memorisation strategy David Kellett	203
15	Process and outcome in tuition for reading: the case of Paired Reading Sam Winter	215
16	Issues and action: lines of development for peer tutoring Sinclair Goodlad and Beverley Hirst	225
	Appendix A Notes on contributors	237
	Appendix B Starting a peer tutoring project: matters to consider	241
	References	243
	Index	262