PREFACE

PART 1. An Introduction to Computer-Based Education

CHAPTER 1. INTRODUCTION 5

CHAPTER 2. COMPUTER-BASED EDUCATION: A BRIEF HISTORY

Formative Ideas: Teaching Machines And Programmed Instruction	9
Significant Projects And Developments	10
Commercially-Based Efforts	10
Educationally-Based Efforts	12
Microcomputing	14

CHAPTER 3. EDUCATIONAL COMPUTING AND COMPUTER-BASED EDUCATION

How Educators Use Computers	17
Research Uses	17
Administrative Uses	18
Instructional Uses	18
How Schools Use Computer-based Education	19
Managing Instruction	20
Helping Students Learn	22
Common Computer-based Teaching Strategies	23
Drill and Practice	23
Dialogue	26
Simulation	29
Games	32
Computer Assisted Testing (CAT)	34
Problem Solving	40
Discovery Learning	41

CHAPTER 4. INCORPORATING COMPUTERS INTO INSTRUCTION

A Brief Model Of The Instructional Process	45
1: Educational Goals and Curricular Objectives	45
2: Content Specification	46
3: Content Analysis	46
4: Defining Instructional Objectives	46
5: Selecting Teaching Strategies and Modes of Delivery	47
6: Design and Implementation	47
7: Delivery	47
8: Evaluation	47
The Role Of The Computer	48
When to Select the Computer	48
Matching Computing Capabilities to Instructional Needs	48
Hardware and Software	49
Hardware Considerations	50
Software Considerations	51
Assessing Costs And Benefits	52
Costs	53
Benefits	54

CHAPTER 5. DESIGNING AND PRODUCING COMPUTER-BASED EDUCATIONAL MATERIALS

Preparing for the Control of Instruction	59
Designing the Lesson	60
Program Development	64
Lesson Implementation	65

CHAPTER 6. SOFTWARE TOOLS TO ASSIST YOU IN PRODUCTION

Computer-Managed Instruction Systems	67
Authoring Languages	70
Editors	70
Utilities	74

CHAPTER 7. TRENDS: THE NEW INFORMATION TECHNOLOGY

From Print to Electronic Communication	75
The Effect of Computers	76
The Complete Information Environment	76
Epilogue	77

PART 2: C.A.S. Technical Summary

CHAPTER 8. INTRODUCTION TO DIGITAL'S COURSEWARE
AUTHORING SYSTEM (C.A.S.)

The User Interface	81
C.A.S. Bookkeeping and Reporting	85
C.A.S. Authoring Tools	86

CHAPTER 9. DAL: THE DIGITAL AUTHORING LANGUAGE

A Simple Structure for Easy Operation	87
A Variety of Commands	88
Summary of DAL Instructions	91
DAL Built-in Functions	110
DAL Data Types	114
Usage Characteristics of Variables	114
DAL Operators	116
Response-Related System Variables	117
Graphics and Graphing System Variables	121
