

Contents

List of Plates	xvii
List of Tables and Maps	xviii
List of Abbreviations	xix
Note on Money	xxiii

PART I INTRODUCTORY

I. THE ENVIRONMENT	3
The Climate	3
The People and Their Health	9
The Landscape	11
Animals	17
Buildings	18
Technology and Transport	22
Conclusion	25
2. THE CROWN AND KINGSHIP	27
The Coronation and Sacred Kingship	28
Secular Kingship and the Crown	32
Symbols and Ceremonies	39
Buildings	44
Court and Household	47
3. GOVERNMENT	55
The Structure of Government	57
Careers in Royal Administration	62
Government in the Localities	66
The Church	70
Corruption	72
Conclusion	76

PART II POLITICS AND WARS

4. POLITICS UNDER HENRY III	81
Henry III	82
The Early Years	84
Foreigners	93
Parliament	98
The Church	99
Politics in Crisis, 1258-1264	101
The Civil War and Montfort's Rule	113
Armies of the Civil War	117
Conclusion	119
5. RECONSTRUCTION AND REFORM, 1266-1294	121
The Settlement of England	121
The New King	123
Financial Reorganization	126
Church and State	129
Parliament and Legislation	131
Politics and Patronage, 1289-1294	133
Conclusion	139
6. WALES	141
Wales and the Marches	141
Henry III and Wales	146
Llywelyn ap Gruffudd	148
The Edwardian Conquest	150
The Organization of War	157
Settlement and Rebellion	159
English Armies	162
The Aftermath	163
7. POLITICAL CRISES, 1294-1311	165
The Demands of War	165
The Crisis of 1297	168
The Aftermath of Crisis	172

Edward II and the Ordinances	178
Parliament	185
8. TIMES OF TROUBLE, 1311-1330	188
The Death of Gaveston	188
Lancaster and the Lincoln Parliament	190
New Favourites	194
The Civil War of 1321-1322	198
The Rule of the Despensers	205
Deposition	213
Isabella and Mortimer	220
Appendix: The Modus Tenendi Parliamentum	224
9. SCOTLAND	227
England and Scotland in the Thirteenth Century	228
Edward I's Intervention in Scotland	230
Edward I's Scottish War	232
Edward II's Scottish War	239
Edward III's Scottish War	244
Land and Patronage	246
The Organization of War	250
Casualties and Ransoms	257
The Scots and the North of England	259
Conclusion	264
10. ENGLAND UNDER EDWARD III	266
The Restoration of Royal Authority	266
The Demands of War	269
The Crisis of 1340-1341	273
Stability, Statutes, and Parliament	278
Legislation and the Church	285
The Government and the Economy	287
Conclusion: Edward III	289
11. ENGLAND AND FRANCE	292
The Causes of War	292

Henry III and France	294
England and France under Edward I and Edward II	298
The Origins of War in 1337	304
Edward III's War Aims	307
The Grand Strategy	310
Years of Triumph	312
The Black Prince's War	321
Diplomacy and War	325
12. THE ARMIES OF EDWARD III'S FRENCH WAR	328
Recruitment	328
The Navy	334
Supplies	335
Command and Tactics	336
Chivalry and Propaganda	339
War and the Economy	348
 PART III SOCIETY AND PEOPLE
13. THE GREAT LORDS	353
The Earls	354
Royal Policy	361
Countesses	364
Barons	366
The Higher Clergy	370
Households and Retinues	373
Castles	382
Death	384
Conclusion	387
14. THE KNIGHTS AND THE GENTRY	389
Counting Knights	390
Falling Numbers	392
Successful Knights	398
Maintaining Numbers	402

Esquires	403
Community	405
Symbols of Knighthood	408
15. LANDOWNERSHIP AND THE LAW	414
The Acquisition of Land	414
Legislation	419
Entails, Jointures, and Uses	423
16. THE MANAGEMENT OF LAND	427
High Farming	427
Farming Methods	434
The Fourteenth Century	439
17. THE PEASANTRY	444
Free and Unfree	446
The Land Market, Women, and the Landless	451
Living Standards	454
Resistance	460
Village Life	461
War and Politics	464
18. THE TOWNS	468
Numbers and Characteristics	468
Townspople	473
Urban Government	476
Conflict	479
Economy	481
Guilds and Fraternities	485
Urban Life	487
19. TRADE AND MERCHANTS	491
Trade and Government	493
Italian Companies	497
English Merchants	501
20. CRIME AND PUNISHMENT	507
The Extent of Crime	507

Crime, Politics, and War	509
Gentry, Clergy, and Women	512
The Mechanisms of the Law	515
The Keepers of the Peace	519
Conviction and Punishment	523
21. POPULATION AND THE BLACK DEATH	529
Overall Totals	529
Local Evidence	532
The Black Death	538
The Course of the Epidemic	542
The Consequences for Economy and Government	546
Church and Culture	550
22. CONCLUSION	554
National Identity	554
Englishness and the Law	559
Myth and War	561
Art and Architecture	564
Intellectual Life	567
Conclusion	570
Chronology	577
Genealogical Tables	582
Bibliography	587
Index	609