

Foreword

Ellen Koskoff / ix

Introduction: Music and Gender—Negotiating Shifting Worlds

Beverley Diamond and Pirkko Moisala / i

PART I: MUSIC PERFORMANCE AND PERFORMATIVITY

1. Performance and Modernity among BaAka Pygmies: A Closer Look at the Mystique of Egalitarian Foragers in the Rain Forest

Michelle Kisliuk / 25

2. Local Constructions of Gender in a Finnish Pelimanni Musicians Group

Helmi Järviluoma / 51

3. The Image of Woman in Turkish Ballad Poetry and Music

Ursula Reinhard / 80

PART 2: TELLING LIVES

4. The Interpretation of Gender Issues in Musical Life Stories of Prince Edward Islanders

Beverley Diamond / 99

5. Writing the Biography of a Black Woman Blues Singer

Jane Bowers / 140

6. Gender Negotiation of the Composer Kaija Saariaho in Finland: The Woman Composer as Nomadic Subject

Pirkko Moisala / 166

7. Searching for Data about European Ladies' Orchestras, 1870–1950

Margaret Myers / 189

PART 3: GENDERED MUSICAL SITES IN THE REDEFINITION OF NATIONS

8. Defining Women and Men in the Context of War: Images in Croatian Popular Music in the 1990s
Naila Ceribašić / 219
9. Women, Music, and “Chains of the Mind”: Eritrea and the Tigray Region of Ethiopia, 1972–93
Cynthia Tse Kimberlin / 239
10. Past and Present Gender Roles in the Traditional Community on Kihnu Island in Estonia
Ingrid Rüütel / 266

PART 4: TECHNOLOGIES IN GENDERED MOTION

11. Women Mix Engineers and the Power of Sound
Boden Sandstrom / 289
12. Gender, Voice, and Place: Issues of Negotiation in a “Technology in Music Program”
Karen Pegley / 306
13. Cyborg Experiences: Contradictions and Tensions of Technology, Nature, and the Body in Hildegard Westerkamp’s “Breathing Room”
Andra McCartney / 317
14. No Bodies There: Absence and Presence in Acousmatic Performance
Linda Dusman / 336

Epilogue: The Place of Gender within Complex, Dynamic Musical Systems

Marcia Herndon / 347

Contributors / 361

Index / 365