

Contents

1
Introduction	1
History	1
Methods	2
Structure	2
2
A Didactic Model	7
Knowledge versus Skills	7
A Classification of Educational Objectives	10
3
An Analysis of Teaching Methods in Higher Education	19
Teaching Method and Teaching Medium	19
Didactically Treated and Original Learning Material	20
Conclusion-Oriented and Paradigmatic Instruction	21
Knowledge Gaps and Misrepresentations of Knowledge	22
Lectures	23
Self-Study	25
Discussion Groups	28
Practicals	29
Conclusion	32
4
The Scope and Limitations of Written Instruction	35
Direct or Vicarious Experience	35
Disadvantages of Written Instruction	36
Properties of Written Instruction of a Combined Positive and Negative Character	37
Advantages of Written Instruction	38
Differences between Texts	38
The Combination of Text and Image	39
Activating the Reader	43
The Literacy of the Student	54
Recapitulation: The Limitations of Written Instruction	57

5
	The Scope and Limitations of Audiovisual Teaching Media	61
	A Simple Division	61
	Auditory Registration	62
	Visual Registration	68
	Some Special Applications of Audiovisual Media	78
	Conclusion	80
6
	The Scope and Limitations of Computerized Instruction	87
	Computers in Education	87
	The Technology of Computers: First Round	89
	Computer-Assisted Instruction: Didactic Possibilities	92
	The Technology of Computers: Software	96
	Testing by Means of a Computer	100
	Instructional Remediation by Means of a Computer	106
	Conclusion	108
7
	Distance Learning and The Choice of Instructional Medium	113
	The Problem	113
	Solutions of the Open University	114
	Solutions for an Open University	116
	Distance Learning Possibilities for Traditional Institutions	129
8
	The Cost of Distance Learning	133
	The Economic Perspective	133
	Which Costs Will Be Examined?	134
	Determining the Costs of Instruction: Method and Assumptions	134
	The Costs of Written Materials	138
	The Costs of Auditory Registrations	145
	The Costs of Visual Registration	152
	The Costs of Computer-Assisted Instruction	164
	The Costs of Face-to-Face Teaching	172
	The Costs of Testing and Feedback	174
	Index of Names	185
	Index of Subjects	189