

CONTENTS

Figures	viii
Acknowledgements	ix
Abbreviations	x
Introduction	1

Part I: A Liberal Empire for a Liberal Nation

1. National Unification and Overseas Expansion at the Frankfurt National Assembly, 1848–1849	27
2. Mythopoesis—Imperialism as Nationalism	50

Part II: Liberal Imperialism in the “Post-Liberal” Era

3. Informal Empire and Private Sector Imperialism, 1849–1884	75
4. Bürgerlich Agency and the World of the Verein, 1849–1884	101
5. Bismarck and the Sociopolitical Context of the Colonial “Umschwung”	116

Part III: The Texts of Imperialism

6. Expansionist Agitation after 1849	135
7. Geography and Anthropology in the Service of Imperialism	160
8. Popular Culture and the Transmission of Imperialist Values	177
Conclusion	205
Bibliography	212
Index	234