

CONTENTS

Listen to His Many Voices: An Introduction to the Literature of the American Indian, by Shirley Hill Witt xvii

I. AS SNOW BEFORE A SUMMER SUN

The Coming of the White Man: The Pretty Colored Snake, A Cherokee Story 3

Restore to Us Our Country, by Thayendanagea (General Joseph Brant) 4

Will We Let Ourselves Be Destroyed?, by Tecumtha (Tecumseh) 5

As Snow Before a Summer Sun 6

"The Way . . . Is for All the Redmen to Unite" 6

Let Our Affairs Be Transacted by Warriors 7

It Is Hard to Fight Among Brethren for the Sake of Dogs, by Pontiac 8

"He Drank the Blood of Some Whites": Black Hawk Speaks 9

- Our New Home Will Be Beyond a Great River, by Keokuk 12
- Those Who Made War Against the White Man Always Failed. . . . , by Aleek-chea-ahoosh (Plenty-Coups) 13
- It Is a Good Day to Die! 16
- You Are Like Dogs in the Hot Moon, by Shakopee 17
- Dakotas, I Am for War!, by Red Cloud 17
- The Day Before the Battle on the Little Big Horn, by Lloyd Winter Chaser 18
- Our People Are Blindly Deceived, by Sitting Bull 20
- The Surrender of Geronimo: "I Was Living Quietly and Contented, Doing and Thinking of No Harm . . ." 22
- "Your People Have Destroyed My Nation," by Red Eagle 25
- "I Will Fight No More Forever," by High'moot Tooyalakekt (Chief Joseph) 27
- "Dead, Did I Say? There Is No Death . . . ," by Chief Seathe (Seattle) 28

II. SONGS OF THE PEOPLE

- Songs of the People (Anishinabe Nagamon), by Gerald Vizenor 33
- A Word Has Power, by N. Scott Momaday 38
- The Mysterious Bird and the Land of the Death, by Jaime de Angulo 40
- Ceremony for Rain (Niltsa Bikah Nahaagha) as told to Sidney M. Callaway and Gary Witherspoon 45

The Legend of Dr. Fewkes and Masauwu, by
Edmund Nequatewa 50

Manabozho and the Gambler, by Gerald Vizenor 53

III. THE NEW INDIANS

The Reservations 59

What Is An Indian Reservation?, by Marilyn Cosen,
White Mountain Apache 59

We Do Not Want Any Other Home, by Celsa
Apapas 60

On an Indian Reservation: How Colonialism Works,
by Robert K. Thomas 60

Our Benefactor, the BIA: Indian Version of the Lord's
Prayer, Anonymous 68

The Dog Problem, by the editor, Maine Indian
Newsletter 69

Always Againsting My Husband Albert Hainois and Everything, or Unemployed Forever by
Anna Hainois 71

Indian Humor 73

A Cherokee Joke: "Watch that Shit!" 73

Etiquette of the Marriage Bed 75

Dog Head Stew (For Fifty People) 75

The Indian Glossary 76

The Speech I Didn't Give When I Didn't Address the National Press Club, Last Time I Was in Washington,
by Hank Adams 77

The Mainstream: Indians as Human Beings, by Earl Old Person 79

Relocation, by Reverend Watt Spade and Willard Walker 82

On the Road, Indian-Style: The New Migrations, three poems by Simon Ortiz 83

Relocation 84

Missing That Indian Name of Roy or Ray 85

West: Grants to Gallup, New Mexico 88

The Urban Indians 89

The Indian in Suburbia, by Wamblee Wastee 90

Urban Indians Reconquer Their Urban Center 91

Today Young Indians Must Relinquish Their Customs, by Richard St. Germaine 91

Changing Cultures, by Howard Rock 94

Civil Rights and Indian Rights, by Sam Kolb 96

On the Art of Stealing Human Rights, by Jerry Gambill 97

The New Indian Wars, by Mel Thom 102

Changes, by Clyde Warrior 108

Which One Are You?: Five Types of Young Indians 108

This Indian Revolution 111

IV. "MY TEACHER IS A LIZARD": EDUCATION AND CULTURE

You Are Highly Educated—That Does Not Help Us Any at All, by Albert Attocknie, Chief, Comanche tribe 117

- Protection Against "Thinkers"—a Cherokee Chant,
by Jack F. and Anna G. Kilpatrick 119
- Too Many Scientists and Not Enough Chiefs, by
Howard Rock, Tundra Times 121
- Fourteen Strings of Purple Wampum to Writers
About Indians 122
- An Untrue Portrayal of the Indians 124
- Indians and Hollywood: An Old Script 125
- Open Letter to Skelton, by Calvin Jones, Sr. 125
- A Word on Indian Studies Programs, by Alan
Parker 126
- The New Indians and the Old Indians: Cultural Factors in the Education of American Indians, by
Robert L. Bennett 128
- Everyone Talks in Poetry 132
- Love Poems and Spring Poems and Dream Poems and War Poems, translated by Gerald Vizenor 134
- Snow, The Last, by Joseph Concha 136
- Grandfather and I, by Joseph Concha 136
- A New Visitor (To the Pueblo), by Joseph Concha 137
- In One Day My Mother Grew Old, by
    Courtney Moyah 138
- Untitled, by Vance Iron Good 138
- The Man from Washington, by James Welch 139
- One Chip of Human Bone, by Ray Young Bear 139
- Three Poems, by Calvin O'John 140

- It Is Not! As told by a fifth-year group in The Special Navajo Program in 1940 140
- I Am a Papago Girl, by Frances Kisto 141
- Walk Proud, Walk Straight, Let Your Thoughts Race, by Patty Harjo 141
- When I Was Young, My Father Said, by Bruce Ignacio 142
- New Way, Old Way, by Dave Martin Nez 143
- Sorry About That, by Kenneth Kale 144
- Death, by Janie Bullis 146
- My Life, by Jeanne Baker 146
- War Signs, by Willie George 147
- Poem for Vietnam, by Ray Young Bear 147
- Loser, by David Reeves 149
- My Words Are Changed Into Dirty Thoughts 149
- My Language: Is Navajo a Dirty Word?, by Bertha Desiderio 150
- My Teacher Is a Lizard, by Mary Lynn Blackburn 151
- Indian Education 151
- Missing Children 152
- Youth Dies of Exposure 152
- Three Kayenta Teachers Resign 153
- "Why Must We Be Treated Like Monkeys?", by Jr. Draper 154
- The Schools Are Fenced In: Community Control of the Schools, by Vance Randall 155
- A Navajo Medicine Man Cures His Son 157

V. THE LAWS OF LIFE: TRIBAL AND LEGAL

Live As Your Wise Forefathers Lived Before You,
by Pontiac 163

The White Man's Way: "We Gave Them Meat, They Gave Us Poison," by Sago-yo-watha (Red Jacket) 165

The Missionary in a Cultural Trap, by
Vine Deloria, Jr. 169

Religion of the People, by Herbert Blatchford 173

Oath of Office of the Pueblos, translated by Joe Sando 177

The Laws of the Indians, by Wamblee Wicasa "Eagle
Man" Ed McGaa 178

"Law of the Outlaws" of the Cherokees, by Jack F. and
Anna G. Kilpatrick 181

The Origin and Development of the Navajo Tribal Government 184

"The Real Issues of the Campaign" 187

The Intellectual Tribal Leader, as a Social Type, by Margaret Oberly 188

VI. THE RITUAL OF DEATH: WAR AND PEACE

A Death in South Dakota 195

The Case of Thomas James White Hawk 196

Why Did He Do It? 197

On Death Row, by Thomas James White Hawk
quoting from Socrates 198

Manifest Destiny: Vietnam and the Indians, by
Parmenton Decorah 199

War and Peace 202

Indian Vietnam Sentiment Polled 203

"A Soldier Must Do Battle," by Clyde Sampson 203

Should Indians Fight in White Man's War?, by
Stanley Benally 205

Navajo Banished to Reservation 207

"I Choose to Serve My People": The Statement of a
Vietnam Veteran, by Pvt. Sidney Mills 208

VII. THE LONG ROAD

"We Meet in a Time of Darkness": Declaration of the Five County Cherokees 213

The Voice of the American Indian, Declaration of Indian Purpose, American Indian Chicago
Conference 216

Self-Determination: National Indian Youth Council
Statement of Policy 220

Appeal for an "Underdeveloped Nation" Loan 222

Red Power: An Eight Point Program, by the Native
Alliance for Red Power 225

Okla-Houma: The Red-Earth-Colored-People—The Program of the United Native Americans 228

The Turtle Island: The North American Indian
Unity Convention 229

"We Hold The Rock": Alcatraz Proclamation to the Great White Father and His People 232

VIII. PROPHECIES OF THE FUTURE

- "Where Do We Stand Today?": The Hopi Prophecy
Updated 239
- The Lost Brother: An Iroquois Prophecy of the Serpents,
as retold by Wallace "Mad Bear" Anderson 243
- Prophecy of the Four-Legged Man: "We Will Defeat
Goliath," by Reverend Clifton Hall 247
- The Warriors of the Rainbow, by William Willoya 249
- "So Let There Be Happiness," Apache tribe 253
- Acknowledgments 255