

Contents

Acknowledgments 7

Introduction 9

- 1 A Song Heard in the Dawn 13
Learning from Chio Jari, a wild Guaymi of the mountains, and his Dawn Song
- 2 The Spirit Behind Native American Religions 22
Ecologic and economic basis of religion in America
The shamans or medicine men and the priests of Native American religions
- 3 Learning from Mistakes 31
White people have made innumerable mistakes in dealing with native peoples of America—their lack of understanding has been incredible
- 4 Learning to Understand and Reach the Spirit 40
If we dig deep enough to find the eternal power of the spirit that is within us, we can find the strength to learn from our mistakes and finally overcome them!

- 5 Lords of the Dawn 48
Real or not real culture heroes—five hypotheses for studying them and searching for the truth
- 6 Degandawidah and Hiawatha of the Iroquois 54
How these two great heroes persuaded the Mohawks, the Oneida, the Cayuga and latter other tribes to join a new religion and form a new League of Nations
- 7 The Shining Woman 61
The story of White Buffalo Calf Maiden of the Sioux—the general patterns of all culture hero accounts begin to emerge
- 8 He Who Brought the Sacred Arrows 68
The story of Sweet Medicine—culture hero of the Cheyennes
- 9 The Great Feathered Serpent and the Brotherhood of the Tree 75
The historical background of the coming of Quetzalcoatl, the Lord of the Dawn, and his great adventure
- 10 Out of the Silence They Also Came Singing 95
Great Central American culture heroes
God-like beings who came to the peoples of western South America
- 11 A Sioux Youth Prepares Himself for a Vision 106
In detail—preparation for a vision search
- 12 The Sacred Pipe—Guide to a Vision and to Life 115
The origins, decorations, fittings and role of the Sacred Pipe in Sioux Indian religion
- 13 The Youth Searches for a Vision 122
An account of a Sioux youth's vision search
- 14 The Broken Pipe 132
The despair of the Indian as all that was beautiful in his past was pulled down and hidden by the curtain of white civilization—the putting away of the Sacred Pipe

- 15 Great Dreams Sent by the Above One 138
The vision of the old Makah
The vision of Black Elk
The vision of the Wishram great-great-grandmother
A great vision of Crazy Horse, holy man and warrior of the Sioux Chilam Balam, the Great Seer of the last days of the Maya and his vision of the future of the world
- 16 Voices Out of the Earth 147
A Ute who taught humbleness
The Cheyenne with the face that mirrored the wilderness
A wise and humble Hopi chief
A wise and kind lady
Mad Bear on Indian Youth
- 17 Preparing for a Vision Search on Bear Butte 156
An unusual pipe bag
The Inipi ceremony for healing and purification
Sun Dance of the Oglala Sioux
Prelude to a vision search on Bear Butte
- 18 When Fire Rimmed the Sky 164
Account of the author's vision search on Bear Butte mountain
- 19 A Warning from the Thunder Beings 175
Spiritual strength is needed to help change the world . . . by love, understanding, purity and the power of example
- Bibliography 178