

Contents

Acknowledgments	vii
Introduction	ix
Chapter 1: Interdisciplinary Applications of Popular Music for Classroom Teaching Activities and Student Research Projects 1
General Teaching Commentaries	3
Architecture	8
Art and Photography	9
Audio Technology	10
Black Studies	11
Business and Economics	14
Criminal Justice and Law Enforcement	21
Culinary Arts	23
Drama, Film, and Theatre Studies	24
Education	26
Geography and Environmental Studies	26
Health Care and Wellness	31
History	33
International Relations and Military History	38
Journalism	42
Language and Linguistics	46
Language Arts (Composition, Grammar, Literature, Poetry, and Spelling)	47
Library Science and Information Services	49
Mass Media Communications	51
Music	57
Philosophy and Religion	59
Physical Education and Sports Studies	60
Political Science	61
Popular Culture Studies	62
Psychology	67
Science and Technology	67
Social Studies	71
Sociology and Anthropology	72
Speech and Oral Interpretation	78
Urban Studies	79
Women's Studies	83

Chapter 2: Biographical Studies, Oral History, and Popular Music Personality Profiles for Classroom Investigation	87
Educational Perspectives on Investigating Record Artist Profiles	88
Music Encyclopedias and Biographical Directories as Teaching Resources	91
Influential Popular Music Performers and Composers for Student Examination	114
Chapter 3: Popular Music Styles and Dance Trends as Topics for Classroom Discussion and Student Research Projects	197
General Observations and Overviews on Segmentation of Music	198
Major Styles and Trends	199
Other Styles and Trends	217
General International/World Musics	257
Chapter 4: Popular Music Reference Resources for Teachers, Librarians, Media Specialists, and Students	263
Music Bibliographies	263
Music Books	273
Music Anthologies	287
Music Articles and Chapters	293
Songbooks, Lyric Anthologies, and Discographies	306
Song and Performer Popularity Charts	313
Library Resources, Archival Collections, and Other Specialized Popular Music Sources	326
Artist Index	331
Author Index	333
Topic Index	367