

foreword xii

acknowledgments xvi

introduction 1

1 BEFORE COLUMBUS, 7

Proliferation of Cultures

The Agricultural Revolution

The Aztecs

Other Early Indian Cultures

The Iroquois

Other Tribal Groups

2 EUROPE REACHES THE AMERICAS, 26

Spanish Expansion into the New World
English Entry into the Colonial Race
Religious Goals of Colonization
English Images of the North American Natives
English-Indian Encounter

3 CULTURES MEET ON THE CHESAPEAKE, 46

Early Misfortune
Reorganization and Tobacco
English-Indian Relations

4 CULTURES MEET IN THE NORTHEAST, 68

Puritanism
The Quest for Utopia
Early Dissension
Puritans and Indians
Land Acquisition
The Puritan Sense of Mission

5 PATTERNS OF INDIAN-EUROPEAN INTERACTION, 88

The Mighty Dutch
The French
Struggles to Control Fur Resources
Violence between the Dutch and the Indians
New Netherland Becomes New York
French-Indian Relations
Colonization Efforts in South Carolina
Carolinian-Indian Relations

6 THE COASTAL CULTURES: RESISTANCE AND ACCOMMODATION, 121

Metacom's War
Bacon's Rebellion
The Arrival of the Quakers
Deterioration of Harmony in Pennsylvania
James Logan
South Carolina-Indian Relations
The Tuscarora War
The Yamasee War

7 EUROPE, AFRICA, AND THE NEW WORLD, 156

Early Slave Trade
Early Slavery in the English Colonies
The Status of Slaves in North and South America

8 THE AFRICAN RESPONSE TO SLAVERY, 183

Capture and Transport of Slaves
Adjustment to Slave Life
Slavery in the North
Black Culture in Colonial America

9 THE TRANSFORMATION OF EUROPEAN CULTURE, 213

The European Immigrants
Agricultural Communities: North and South
Land, Ambition, and Growth
Changing Social Structure
Waning Economic Democracy
Frontier Society
Political Individualism

10 WARS FOR EMPIRE AND INDIAN STRATEGIES FOR SURVIVAL, 239

Iroquois Diplomacy
Creek Diplomacy
Transformations in Indian Society
Population Increase
Indian Strategy in the Seven Years' War

11 THE MIXING OF PEOPLES, 276

Indian-European Contact
White-Black Intermixture
African-Indian Contact

12 RED, WHITE, AND BLACK ON THE EVE OF REVOLUTION, 298

Red-White Relations After 1763
Abolitionism
Cultural Interaction of Red, White, and Black bibliographical essay

320

index

342