

Structure

1	Summary	1
2	Introduction: motivation and task of the study	5
3	Concept and study structure	7
3.1	Evaluation and impact analyses	7
3.2	The method of examination: cooperative impact analysis	8
	Selection	9
	Case studies	10
	Verification and application	11
4	Findings of the impact analysis	13
4.1	Impact of INTERREG	13
4.2	Results according to impact areas	14
	Mobilisation of financial resources	14
	Innovations in the field of brands, standards and procedures	18
	Qualification and quality management	22
	Development of regional transnational control competence	25
	Summary of the results	31
4.3	Benefits of INTERREG: what reaches the regions?	33
	Benefits of INTERREG for the cooperation areas and Europe	34
	Value of INTERREG for the German federal states	35
	Value of INTERREG for the regions	35
	Value of INTERREG for the local authorities	35
	Companies	35
5	Recommendations for action	37
5.1	Partnership	37
5.2	Programme level	38
5.3	Outlook	40
6	Literature	41
6.1	Thematic literature	41
6.2	Theoretical and process-analytical literature	41
	Project Overview - Case Studies	44
	Project List - Follow-Up Action	50

Table of figures

Figure 1	Transnational collaboration	1
Figure 2	Selection stages for selecting the case studies	9
Figure 3	Impact areas and indicators	10
Figure 4	Examination structure of the cooperative impact analysis for INTERREG III B	12
Figure 5	Projects and impact areas examined	13
Figure 6	Flood Hazard Map of Schwedt (Oder) and its surroundings	27
Figure 7	ELLA; From: Cross-border fields of action of the ELLA strategy	28