

Contents

Sabine Volk-Birke and Julia Lippert (Halle-Wittenberg)

Preface

XI

Section I: The Long Eighteenth Century

Therese Fischer-Seidel (Düsseldorf)

The Long Eighteenth Century: Introduction

3

Howard D. Weinbrot (Wisconsin, Madison)

"Root Out This Cursed Race": Defoe's Shortest Way With the Dissenters and his Longer Way With Himself

7

Burkhard Niederhoff (Bochum)

From Honest, Downright Barbarity to the Art of Being Natural: Primitivism in Restoration Comedy

25

Sabine Baltes (Chemnitz)

'Creators of Mirth and Whim': Popular Irish Dramatists on the Eighteenth-Century English Stage

35

Laurenz Volkmann (Jena)

Back with a Vengeance: The Return of Bernard Mandeville

45

Christian Huck (London)

Calico Bill and the Calico Madams: Fashion, Print, and the Public

53

Ingrid-Charlotte Wolter (Düsseldorf)

Education to Individuality – Individual Educationalists: Mary Wollstonecraft and Christian Gotthilf Salzmann

65

Michael Szczekalla (Greifswald)

Pleading for the Autonomy of Ethics – A Fresh Look at Free-thinking in the Essays and Dialogues of Shaftesbury and Hume

75

Section II: Creative Writing

Ian Watson (Bremen) and Frank J. Kearful (Bonn)

Creative Writing: Past, Present, Future

87

Andrew Motion (London)

Where Do all the Creative Writing Graduates Go?

95

Rob Pope (Oxford)
Critical Reading into Creative Re-writing: Textual Intervention in English Studies Now	101
Glenn Patterson (Belfast)
Can Writers Teach Writing?	111
Susanne Bach (Kassel)
"Punk-Tuition" for "Harry Krishner" – Creative Writing in Literature	119
Barbara Glindemann (Hamburg)
Self-Directed and Imaginative Learning in School Projects: A Constructivist Didactics of Creative Writing	129

Section III: Politics and Literature

Jana Gohrisch (Hanover) and Merle Tönnies (Paderborn)
Introduction	143
Andrew James Johnston (Berlin)
Literary Politics in Debate: Chaucer's Parliament of Fowls and Clanvowe's Book of Cupid	147
Annette Pankratz (Bochum)
Body Power: Sexual Politics in Late 17 th Century Poetry	159
Dirk Wiemann (Tübingen)
Bodies in Collision: Hobbes, Milton and the Body Politic	171
Susanne Scholz (Frankfurt)
The Politics of Degeneration in Late Victorian Literature	181
Jens Martin Gurr (Duisburg-Essen)
The 'Native' Cites Back: Postcolonial Theory and the Politics of Jim Jarmusch's Western Dead Man	191
Aleks Sierz (London)
"Political What-Do-Ya-Call-It": British Drama and Its Politics	203

Section IV: Postcolonial Aesthetics

Elleke Boehmer (London)
A Postcolonial Aesthetic: Aspiration or Anxiety?	217
Tobias Döring and Cordula Lemke (Munich)
The Postcolonial Sublime: Ossian's Scotland	227

Monika Fludernik (Freiburg)
Is There a Postcolonial Sublime?	237
Günter Leypoldt and Lars Eckstein (Tübingen)
T.S. Eliot and the Transcultural Sublime	249
Virginia Richter (Munich)
The Nowhere Man: Strangeness as Aesthetic Means in the Work of V.S. Naipaul	259
Susanne Reichl (Vienna)
Reading Aesthetics as Politics in Postcolonial Literatures	267
Sissy Helff (Frankfurt)
Signs Taken For Truth: Orchestrating Transcultural Aesthetics through Transcultural Unreliable Narration	277
Sigrun Meinig (Dresden)
Connecting Difference and Sameness: Empathy, Equality and Post-Colonial Literatures	289
Section V: Standards and Norms
Friederike Klippel (Munich) and Joybrato Mukherjee (Giessen)
Standards and Norms in Language Description and Language Teaching: An Introduction	303
Barbara Seidlhofer (Vienna)
English as a Lingua Franca and Communities of Practice	307
Claus Gnutzmann (Brunswick)
Teaching and Learning English in a Global Context: Applied-Linguistic and Pedagogical Perspectives	319
Christiane Meierkord (Münster)
Standards and Norms in Interactions Across Second Language Englishes: The Case of South Africa	331
Christian Mair (Freiburg) and Sandra Mollin (Heidelberg)
Getting at the Standards Behind the Standard Ideology: What Corpora Can Tell Us About Linguistic Norms	341
Ute Römer (Hanover)
Learner Language and the Norms in Native Corpora and EFL Teaching Materials: A Case Study of English Conditionals	355

Joybrato Mukherjee (Giessen)
Exploring and Annotating a Spoken English Learner Corpus: A Work-in-Progress Report	365
Matthias Hutz (Freiburg)
Standards and Norms in Academic Writing: A Cross-linguistic Comparison	377
Christiane Bongartz (Cologne)
Studying Classroom Language: Curricular Planning and Proficiency Assessment in Young Foreign Language Learners	387
Section VI: Varia
Anne Schröder (Halle)
Theoretical and Empirical Approaches to Productivity: Evidence from English Verbal Morphology	399
Susanne Mühleisen (Bayreuth)
Of Lessees , Retirees and Beseechees : a Corpus-based Analysis of the Productivity of a Heterogeneous Word-formation Pattern in English	413
Dagmar Barth-Weingarten (Potsdam)
Prosody, Construction Grammar and Language Change	423
Marco Schilk (Giessen)
Using WWW-derived Corpora in Research into Second-language Varieties of English: Focus on Verb Complementation in Indian English	435
Patricia Plummer (Mainz)
Insatiable Desires: (Sub)Versions of Gender in William Beckford's Vathek and Frances Sheridan's The History of Nourjahad	445
Christian Schmitt-Kilb (Rostock)
Longing for Origins in Postmodern Times: Absent Parents in Kazuo Ishiguro's When We Were Orphans (2000) and Never Let Me Go (2005)	457
Dietmar Böhnke (Leipzig)
Brave New Scotland? National Identity and Contemporary Scottish Fiction	467
Notes on Contributors	477