

Contents

Preface	ix
Addenda et corrigenda to Kumaniecki's app. crit. (selection)	xi
The apparatus criticus in the commentary	xix
Further abbreviations	xx
Introductory remarks	1
Elocutio D5, sequel:
Return to ornatus (3,96-103)	2
1. Summary; subject and character of the passage	2
2. Structure	4
3. Function	5
4. Background and 'sources'	8
Commentary 3,96-103	13
Elocutio D6: The ideal orator (d):
True ornatus resides in content — the theses (3,104-125)	38
1. Summary	38
2. Structure	39
3. Function	41
4. The thesis (A): the general background	42
5. The thesis (B): the systematic background	45
6. The thesis (C): Cicero's stance in De oratore and its antecedents	48
7. The thesis, Appendix A: 3,110 — rhetoricians or philosophers?	54
8. The thesis, Appendix B: the division in 3,111-118	55
Commentary 3,104-125	57
Elocutio D7: The ideal orator (e):
The loss of the original unity of speech and knowledge again (3,126-143)	105
1. Summary	105
2. Function and arguments	106
3. Structure	108
4. Confronting Plato (3,129)	109
5. The elements of 3,126-143: sources and effect	112
Commentary 3,126-143	116

Elocutio D8:

Interlude: The others react (3,144-147)	163
1. Summary	163
2. Function, structure and characterization	163
Commentary 3,144-147	165

3,148-227: Introductory remarks	173
1. The subjects: style and delivery	173
2. Technical language	173
3. Crassus' 'authorities': Aristotle and Theophrastus	174

Elocutio E1: Technical discussion of ornatus (a):

Individual words (3,148-170)	176
1. Summary; function; preliminaries	176
2. Technical background and structure: 3,148-209 and 148-170	178
3. The discussions of propria, archaisms and coinages (3,150-154)	182
4. The discussions of metaphors, the other tropes and allegory (3,155-170)	183
Commentary 3,148-170	186

Elocutio E2: Technical discussion of ornatus (b):

The combination of words (3,171-198) by Michael Winterbottom	232
1. Summary	232
2. Structure	233
3. The main division	235
4. Function; tone and dialogue technique	236
5. Sources	237
6. Art and nature	241
Commentary 3,171-198	243

Elocutio E3: Technical discussion of ornatus (c):

The figures (3,199-209)	302
1. Summary; structure	302
2. Function; Cicero's parody of the theory of figures	303
3. Cicero's readership, his source(s), and the history of the figures	304
4. The scope of the commentary; the text	305
Commentary 3,199-209	305

Elocutio F: Aptum (3,210-212)

1. Summary; structure	332
2. Function; the character of Cicero's discussion	332
3. The technical and Theophrastan background; the four categories of appropriateness	334
Commentary 3,210-212	336

Actio (3,213-227) by Elaine Fantham	342
1. Summary	342
2. Structure	343
3. Rhetorical background	344
4. Actio in De oratore	348
5. Postscript	349
Commentary 3,213-227	349
Coda (3,228-230)	376
1. Summary; structure	376
2. Function	376
Commentary 3,228-230	378
Addenda et corrigenda to volumes 1-4	385
List of readings for volumes 1-5	398
Bibliography for volumes 1-5	415