

Contents

Notes on Contributors	vii
Preface	ix
List of Abbreviations	x
Chronology	xi
1 Introduction: the Politics of Early Modern Censorship Andrew Hadfield	1
Part I: Theatrical Censorship
2 Censorship and Negotiation Janet Clare	17
3 Puritan Tribulation and the Protestant History Play Stephen Longstaffe	31
4 Receiving Offence: A Game at Chess Again Richard Dutton	50
Part II: Religious Censorship
5 'Right Puisante and Terrible Priests': the Role of the Anglican Church in Elizabethan State Censorship Richard A. McCabe	75
6 What is a Catholic Poem?: Explicitness and Censorship in Tudor and Stuart Religious Verse Alison Shell	95
7 John Foxe and the Godly Commonwealth, 1563–1641 David Loades	112
8 Licensing and Religious Censorship in Early Modern England Arnold Hunt	127
Part III: Political Censorship
9 Censoring Ireland in Elizabethan England, 1580–1600 Andrew Hadfield	149

- 10 Burning Books as Propaganda in Jacobean England 165
Cyndia Susan Clegg
- 11 Andrew Marvell: Living with Censorship 187
Annabel Patterson

Afterword

- 12 Doing the Queen: Gender, Sexuality and the Censorship of Elizabeth I's Royal Image from Renaissance Portraiture to Twentieth-century Mass Media 207
Richard Burt
- Index* 229