

CONTENTS

Acknowledgements	vi
Foreword by R. H. Robins	ix
Author's Preface	xv
I. Toward a Historiography of Linguistics	1
1. Linguistic Historiography till 1970: A state-of-the-art report	3
2. Towards a Historiography of Linguistics: 19th and 20th century paradigms	21
3. Four Types of History Writing in Linguistics	55
4. The Importance of Linguistic Historiography and the Place of History in Linguistic Science	63
II. Appraisals of Individual Scholars	71
5. Hermann Paul and Synchronic Linguistics	73
6. Jan Baudouin de Courtenay: His place in the history of linguistic science	107
7. A Minor Figure in 19th-Century French Linguistics: A. Dufriche-Desge- nettes	127
8. Animadversions on Some Recent Claims regarding the Relationship between Georg von der Gabelentz and Ferdinand de Saussure	137
III. Trends and Traditions in Linguistics	153
9. Bloomfieldian Linguistics and the Problem of 'Meaning': A chapter in the history of the theory and study of language	155
10. Zu Ursprung und Entwicklung des Phonem-Begriffs: Eine histori- sche Notiz	177
11. 1876 as a Turning Point in the History of Linguistics	189
12. Zu Ursprung und Geschichte der Besternung in der historischen Sprachwissenschaft Eine historiographische Notiz	211
Index of Authors	217