

Contents

List of tables x

Acknowledgements x

Introduction 1

PART I

Maintaining the service

1 The period of the phoney war 7

(i) Prewar preparation 7

(ii) Evacuation and the reception areas 12

(iii) The evacuated areas and the drift back 18

2 Aerial bombardment 32

(i) Replanning 32

(ii) The immediate impact of the aerial onslaught 38

(iii) Evacuees from overseas 52

3 The long haul, 1941-5 56

(i) Air raids and evacuation 56

(ii) School accommodation difficulties 61

(iii) School attendance 68

4 School work in wartime 72

- (i) Losses and gains 72
- (ii) The impact of shortages and contributions to the war effort 79
  - (iii) Seeking more education 87

5 Staffing the schools 93

- (i) The struggle to man the classrooms 93
- (ii) The call-up of schoolmasters 105
  - (iii) Training colleges 109
- (iv) Non-teaching duties of teachers 116
- (v) Arrangements for demobilisation 120
- (vi) The emergency training scheme 124

6 Technical education 128

- (i) The early months of the war 128
- (ii) Contributing to the war effort 133

7 Universities 142

- (i) The pressures of war 142
- (ii) Financial position 150
- (iii) Contribution to the war effort 154
- (iv) The approach of peace 156

PART II

The development of welfare services

8 The school medical service 163

- (i) Preparations for war and the first evacuation 163
- (ii) Maintaining the service during the difficult years 167
  - (iii) Special problems and opportunities 173
  - (iv) Some reconstruction issues 179

9 The school meals and milk service 183

- (i) Disruption and expansion 183
- (ii) Problems, failures and successes 196
- (iii) Meals, milk and reconstruction policy 206

10 The youth service 210

- (i) Creating the service 210
- (ii) The principle of compulsion? 225
- (iii) Planning for peacetime 231

PART III

Reconstruction

11 The office committee on educational reconstruction 237

12 From the Green Book to the White Paper 268

- (i) The background 268
- (ii) The reform of the dual system 271
- (iii) The reform of local administration 292
- (iv) The educational reforms 301

13 The White Paper and the Education Bill 309

- (i) The government and preparations for legislating 309
  - (ii) From the white paper to the publication of the bill 315
  - (iii) From the publication of the bill to the royal assent 321
- Appendix: Board of Education — educational reconstruction* 331

14 Independent and direct grant schools 332

- (i) Financial difficulties, 1938-41 332
- (ii) Towards a committee of inquiry 338
- (iii) The Fleming Committee 346
- (iv) After Fleming, 1944-5 355

15 Curriculum and examinations in secondary schools 367

- (i) The Norwood Committee and its field of inquiry 367
- (ii) Examinations 373
- (iii) The reception of the report 380

16 The future training and supply of teachers 388

- (i) The need for an inquiry 388
- (ii) The McNair Committee 391
- (iii) Steps towards implementing the recommendations 402

17 Education after leaving school 411

(i) 'Technical' education 411

(ii) Universities 422

Epilogue 431

Biographical notes 434

Note on sources 443

Notes and References 451

Index 515