

Contents

Preface	xi
Acknowledgements	xiii
Note	xv
Chapter One
Introducing a name-sign
1. 1. Shevchenko as a Ukrainian sign	1
1. 2. Names, heroes and onomastic mythology	6
1. 3. Freudian onomastic mythology	9
1. 4. Names as graphic signs	11
Chapter Two
Name and heroic description
2. 1. Heroes and heroic need	13
2. 2. Heroic biography, panegyric and heroes	14
2. 3. Heroic biography, concept of a national hero	19
Chapter Three
Onomastic progression
3. 1. From a proper name to a name-symbol	25
3. 2. From a place name to a sacred symbol	35
3. 3. Onomastic statement	42
3. 4. Contradictory names of the hero	46
3. 5. Name-clusters and memory-markers	60
3. 6. Recognized name of hero	66
Chapter Four
Hero, myth and name
4. 1. Name, nation and icon	73
4. 2. Name in the light of the myth about the "Other"	82
4. 3. Name and new mythical identity	88
4. 4. Name and romantic myth	96
4. 5. Name and neoromantic myth	101

Chapter Five

Name, desire and point of view

5. 1.	Desiderative name and reference	113
5. 2.	Name, focus and point of view	119
5. 3.	Name and new heroic paradigm	135
5. 4.	Name and national myth	145
5. 5.	Name and socialist myth	157

Chapter Six

Name, death and temporal anxiety

6. 1.	Name after death	173
6. 2.	Name as an occasion for lament	190
6. 3.	Poeticity of death	193
6. 4.	Name and the other time	205
6. 5.	Name as onomastic drill	211

Conclusions	218
-------------	-----

Notes	219
-------	-----

Bibliography	241
--------------	-----

Index	257
-------	-----