

Contents

1994

	Preface	viii
	Glossary	ix
1	Post-structuralism, ethnography and the critical analysis of education reform	1
2	What is policy? Texts, trajectories and toolboxes	14
3	Education, Majorism and the curriculum of the dead	28
4	Education policy, power relations and teachers' work	48
5	Cost, culture and control: self-management and entrepreneurial schooling	65
6	'New headship' and school leadership: new relationships and new tensions	84
7	Education markets, choice and social class: the market as a class strategy in the UK and USA	102
8	Competitive schooling: values, ethics and cultural engineering	128
	References	149
	Index	160