

Table of contents

Acknowledgements	xi
List of contributors	xiii
Introduction: veni, vidi, vici Max Nännny and Olga Fischer	1
PART I
General
Semiotic foundations of iconicity in language and literature Winfried Nöth	17
The semiotics of the mise-en-abyme John J. White	29
Good probes: Icons, anaphors, and the evolution of language William J. Herlofsky	55
PART II
Sounds and beyond
The sound as an echo to the sense: The iconicity of English gl- words Piotr Sadowski	69
On natural motivation in metaphors: The case of the cucurbits Ralf Norrman	89
Old English poetic texts and their Latin sources: Iconicity in Cædmon's Hymn and The Phoenix Earl R. Anderson	109

PART III

Visual iconicity: Typography and the use of images

- Iconic punctuation: Ellipsis marks in a historical perspective 135
Anne C. Henry
- Iconic functions of long and short lines 157
Max Nännny
- Iconicity in advertising signs: Motive and method in miming 'the body' 189
Robbie B. H. Goh
- Iconoclasm and iconicity in seventeenth-century English poetry 211
Loretta Innocenti

PART IV

Iconicity in grammatical structures

- Structural iconicity: The English -S- and OF-genitives 229
C. Jac Conradie
- The position of the adjective in (Old) English from an iconic perspective 249
Olga Fischer
- Present participles as iconic expressions 277
Frank Jansen and Leo Lentz
- Of Markov chains and upholstery buttons: "Moi, madame, votre chien..." 289
Jean-Jacques Lecerclé

PART V

Iconicity in textual structures

- Iconicity and rhetoric: A note on the iconic force of rhetorical figures in Shakespeare 305
Wolfgang G. Müller
- The emergence of experiential iconicity and spatial perspective in landscape descriptions in English fiction 323
Werner Wolf

TABLE OF CONTENTS

ix

Iconic dimensions in Margaret Atwood's poetry and prose Christina Ljungberg	351
Author index	367
Subject index	377