

CONTENTS

ONE

- Introduction to an Attitude* 1
Semantics and Semiotics 3
Our Symbol-Laden Culture 5
Of Mice and Men, Signs and Symbols 7
Symbolic Transformation 11

TWO

- From Experience to Symbol* 12
A First Assumption: Tentative 12
The World As Perceived 14
Abstracting 20
A Second Look at That First Assumption 22
Language, from Free Speech to Newspeak 26

THREE

Words, Words, Words . . .	29
Learning the Language	29
The First Dimension of Language	33
Language, Values, and Culture	41
The Second Dimension of Language	45
A Summary: Meaning Is As Meaning Does	52

FOUR

But Words Can Never Hurt Me	54
The Inherent Bias	55
Some Words About Words About Words About . . .	56
The "That-Was-No-Lady" Syndrome	57
The Narrowed Vision	59
Caught in the Act	61
Living Up to the Label	63
Saying It May Make It So	65
Blame It on the Language	66
Symbolic Strategies	68

FIVE

Organizing Our Experience	72
A Double Standard: Sense Data and System	73
Mature and Premature Organization of Experience	78
Ordinary Language	80
Statements of Description	81
Statements of Inference	82
Statements of Judgment	84
Tautologies	85
Standards and Contexts	87

Variations on the Theme	89
An Operational Attitude	91
Summary	93

SIX

When People Talk with People	95
Paralanguage and Metacommunication	96
Phatic Communion	97
Blocking of Communication	99
Recording-Transmitting Functions	100
Instrumental Communication	101
Affective Communication	102
Catharsis	104
Magic	107
Ritual	109
On Saying What You Mean, and Meaning What You Say	114

SEVEN

Afterword: Before Language, Beyond Language	116
Reality and the Occult	116
Recommended Reading	120
Index	125