

CONTENTS

Figures and Tables	vii
Preface	ix
List of Contributors	xiii
1. Restoring Fun to Game Theory Avinash Dixit	1
2. Using Classroom Experiments to Teach Economics Denise Hazlett	21
3. The Evolution of Cooperative Learning and Economics Instruction Robin L. Bartlett	39
4. Using the Case Method in the Economics Classroom John A. Carlson and Ann Velenchik	59
5. Using Active Learning Techniques in Large Lecture Classes Stephen Buckles and Gail Mitchell Hoyt	75
6. The Macroeconomics Principles Course: What Should Be Done? Peter E. Kennedy	89
7. Using the Internet and Computer Technology to Teach Economics Kim Sosin and William L. Goffe	109
8. Teaching and Learning Economics at a Distance Martin Shanahan and George Bredon	133
9. Team Term Papers and Presentations Michael Watts	151
10. Using the Nobel Laureates in Economics to Teach Quantitative Methods William E. Becker and William H. Greene	171
11. Assessment of Student Learning in Economics William B. Walstad	193
Author Index	213
Subject Index	219