

Contents

Notes on the Contributors	v
Introduction: Dearing and Beyond	1
1. From the 1991 White Paper to the Dearing Report: A Conceptual and Historical Framework for the 1990s Ann Hodgson and Ken Spours	4
2. The Dearing Review of 16–19 Qualifications: A Step Towards a Unified System? Michael Young	25
3. From A-Levels to an Advanced Level Curriculum of the Future Michael Young and Tom Leney	40
4. GNVQs and the Future of Broad Vocational Qualifications Ken Spours	57
5. Reforming the Work-Based Route: Problems and Potential for Change Lorna Unwin	75
6. Core Skills, General Education and Unification in Post-16 Education Andy Green	88
7. Modularization and the 14–19 Qualifications System Ann Hodgson and Ken Spours	105
8. Unitization: Developing a Common Language for Describing Achievement Geoff Stanton	121

9.	Assessment and Achievement Tim Oates	135
10.	Models of Student Guidance in a Changing 14–19 Education and Training System A G Watts and Michael Young	148
11.	Building Institutional Capability for National Education Reform: The Case of the ‘Formative Value-Added System’ Ann Hodgson	161
12.	The Scottish Experience of Reform: From ‘Action Plan’ to ‘Higher Still’ David Raffe	177
13.	Towards a Unified Qualifications System for Post-Compulsory Education: Barriers and Strategies Ken Spours and Michael Young	194
	Index	214