

CONTENTS

Introduction: Dialog and Discourse	VII
--	-----

Part I Semantic Grammar

1. The Sentence as Dialog	3
A. The Nature of the Sentence – Semantic and Formal	4
B. The Nature of Dialog – Question and Answer	12
2. The Meaning of Assertions	17
A. Describe Subject by Function	29
(1) Agent by Function	34
(2) Object by Function	44
B. Describe Subject by Nature	50
(1) Subject by Characteristic	51
(2) Subject by Identity	69
C. Describe Subject by Class	77
(1) Individual by Class	81
(2) Subclass by Class	86
3. The Structure of Assertions	92
A. Independent	94
B. Parallel	99
C. Modificational	109
4. The Uses of Modification	122
A. Non-restrictive	122
(1) Additive	123
(2) Redundant	135
B. Restrictive	138
(1) Limiting	138
(2) Conditional	155
(3) Inclusive/Exclusive	159

VI

5. The Problem of Implication	168
A. Necessarily Implied	169
B. Not Necessarily Implied	178
6. Inter-assertional Relations	190
A. Descriptive – Continue and Contrast	193
B. Explanatory – Conclude and Support	201
C. Rhetorical – Question and Answer	205

Part II Generative Rhetoric

7. Generating a Composition	213
8. Integrating a Composition	230
9. The Framework of Dialog	287
A. The Subdivisions of a Composition	290
B. A Composition as a Subdivision	298
10. Dialog as a Tool of Analysis	312

Appendix

A. Inflection	345
B. Key to the Diagraming Symbols	347
Bibliography	349
Index	355