

Contents

|   |      |
|---|------|
| Preface   | vii  |
| Acknowledgments   | xiii |
| PART ONE: Structuralism and Linguistic Models |      |
| 1 The Linguistic Foundation                                 | 3    |
| Langue, parole                                       | 8    |
| Relations   | 10   |
| Signs   | 16   |
| Discovery procedures  | 20   |
| 'Generative' or 'transformational'                          | 24   |
| Consequences and implications                               | 26   |
| 2 The Development of a Method: Two Examples                 | 32   |
| The language of fashion                                     | 32   |
| Mythological logic  | 40   |
| 3 Jakobson's Poetic Analyses                                | 55   |
| 4 Greimas and Structural Semantics                          | 75   |
| 5 Linguistic Metaphors in Criticism                         | 96   |
| The work as system  | 98   |
| The work as semiotic project                                | 103  |
| PART TWO: Poetics                             |      |
| X 6 Literary Competence                                     | 113  |
| 7 Convention and Naturalization                             | 131  |
| ✓ Ecriture, lecture                                  | 131  |

|   |                                 |     |
|---|---------------------------------|-----|
|   | The 'real'                      | 140 |
|   | Cultural vraisemblance   | 141 |
|   | Models of a genre               | 145 |
|   | The conventionally natural      | 148 |
|   | Parody and irony                | 152 |
| 8 | Poetics of the Lyric            | 161 |
|   | Distance and deixis             | 164 |
|   | × Organic wholes                | 170 |
|   | Theme and epiphany              | 175 |
|   | Resistance and recuperation     | 178 |
| 9 | Poetics of the Novel            | 189 |
|   | Lisibilité, illisibilité | 189 |
|   | Narrative contracts             | 192 |
|   | Codes                           | 202 |
|   | Plot                            | 205 |
|   | Theme and symbol                | 224 |
|   | Character                       | 230 |

PART THREE: Perspectives

|      |   |     |
|------|---|-----|
| × 10 | 'Beyond' Structuralism: Tel Quel                   | 241 |
| 11   | Conclusion: Structuralism and the Qualities of Literature | 255 |
|      | Notes   | 267 |
|      | Bibliography  | 273 |
|      | Index   | 295 |