

Contents

Preface page vii

Chapter One: Introduction

I.	Facts About Indians	3
	Indian Values and Attitudes	3
	Indian Background	6
	Assimilation	9
	How Many Indians Are There?	11
	Where Are the Indians Concentrated?	12
	What Is a Reservation?	13
	Are Indians Citizens?	16
	What Is the Bureau of Indian Affairs?	16
II.	Landmarks in Indian Law	17
	The Northwest Ordinance	17
	The Constitution of the United States	18
	The Trade and Intercourse Act	18
	The General Allotment Act (Dawes Act)	18
	Indian Reorganization Act	20
	House Concurrent Resolution 108	22
III.	Recommendations	23

Chapter Two: Tribal Governments

I.	Legislative and Executive Powers	24
	Self-Government by Tribes	24
	Treaties and Agreements	27
	Powers of the Federal Government	31

THE INDIAN

Powers of Tribal Governments	35
Civil Rights and Constitutional Protection	42
Immunity of Tribes From Suit	44
II. Administration of Justice	45
Laws	45
A. Interrelation Between Federal, State, and Tribal Laws	45
B. Laws Making No Distinction Between Indians and Others, Either on or off Reservations	46
1. Federal Criminal and Civil Law	46
2. State Criminal and Civil Law	47
C. Offenses in Indian Country	48
1. By Indians Against Indians	48
2. By Indians Against Non-Indians	50
3. By Non-Indians Against Indians (or Indian Property)	50
4. By Non-Indians Against Non-Indians (on Reservations)	51
5. By Indians (on Reservations) but Involving No Victim	51
6. By Non-Indians (on Reservations) but Involving No Victim	52
Courts	52
A. Federal Courts	53
B. State Courts	54
C. Tribal Courts	56
III. Recommendations	60

Chapter Three: Economic Development

I. Introduction	62
II. Present Reservation Economy: Problems and Potentials	66
Population and Land	67
A. Employment	68
B. Welfare	70
C. The Shrinking Land Base	72

Contents

D.	Heirship Land and Tribally-Owned Land	73
	Present Uses of Natural Resources	77
A.	Farming	79
B.	Ranching	80
C.	Mineral and Timber Operations	85
D.	Summary	87
III.	Future Development	87
	Planning	87
	Indian Water Rights	88
	Extension and Managerial Training	92
	Industry	95
	Arts and Crafts	99
	Recreation	102
	Employment Assistance (Relocation)	102
	Economic Opportunity Act (78 Stat. 508)	105
IV.	Cost of Economic Development and Sources of Capital	106
	Cost Estimates	106
	Sources of Capital: Tribal and Individual	107
	Federal Sources of Indian Capital	109
	Private Sources of Indian Capital	110
V.	Responsibility of the Indians	111
VI.	Recommendations	113
 Chapter Four: Bureau of Indian Affairs
I.	Introduction	117
II.	Purpose	118
III.	The Structure of the B.I.A.	119
	Practices and Situations Creating Inefficiency	121
	Proposals Regarding Indian Services	126
IV.	Possible Measures for Improving B.I.A. Services	129
	Policy Making	129
	State-Tribal Relationships	130
	Transfer of Responsibility to Indians	132
	Legal Representation	134
	New Authority	135

V. Recommendations	135
--------------------	-----

Chapter Five: Education

I. Introduction	138
II. Studies About the Education of Indians	139
III. The Indian Pupil and His Needs	141
Students Who Profit From Public Schooling	142
Students Who Need Special Help and Their Problems	142
IV. Curricula	146
V. Appropriations for Indian Education	148
VI. Federal Schools	149
VII. Scholarships	151
VIII. Adult Education	153
IX. Federal Teachers and Counselors	154
X. Branch of Education	155
XI. Recommendations	156

Chapter Six: Health

I. Introduction	159
II. The Present Situation	161
III. Vital Statistics	162
Population Age	162
Birth Rates	162
Infant Mortality (Deaths per 1,000 Live Births)	163
Average Age and Cause of Death and Rates by Age Groups	163
Incidence of Disease	164
Trachoma	165
IV. Housing Among "Acculturated" and Tribal Indians and Federal Housing	166
V. Hospitals	170
VI. Bridge Between Patient and Medical Facility	172
VII. Goals in Indian Health	176
VIII. Recommendations	177

Chapter Seven: Policies Which Impede Indian Assimilation

I.	Introduction	179
II.	Background of Termination	180
III.	Kinds of Termination	183
	Termination by Assumption of Jurisdiction over Indian Country (Public Law 280)	184
	Termination by Withdrawal of Federal Services	187
	A. Notable Weaknesses and Undesirable Results	187
	B. Indian "Acceptance" of Termination	190
	C. Inconsistencies Between Testimony and Acts	191
	D. Three Specific Examples of Termination	193
	1. Paiute Termination	193
	2. Klamath Termination	196
	3. Menominee Termination	199
IV.	Water Rights Under Termination	207
V.	Recommendations	211

Appendix: Tables

Table 1:	Population and Land Held Under Trust by the United States for the Indians	215
Table 2:	Comparative Population of Indians in the United States	218
Table 3:	Indian Trust Land by Area Office	219
Table 4:	Brief Analysis of Financial Assistance Statutes Relevant to Indians	220
Table 5:	Infant Death Rates	227
Index		229

Illustrations

Navaho shepherdess
On the way home from the trading post
Winter hogan
Typical Indian home, Pine Ridge, South Dakota
Modernized "chickee" on Miccosukee Reservation
Pueblo mother and children
Baking bread in beehive oven
Constructing wall of adobe bricks	after page 44
Hopi weaver
Potawatomi hampers
Mesquakie lady doing beadwork
Navaho silversmith
Making a Chippewa ceremonial drum
Modern haircut for a Navaho boy
Navaho tribal enterprise—the tourists
Erecting a home on the Apache Reservation	after page 108
Navaho worker at Glen Canyon
Nez Percé youth at part-time job
Snohomish business college graduate
Navaho women preparing wire for soldering
Sioux student of mortuary science
Studying Diesel mechanics
Vincent Myers, Comanche
Relocation exhibit	after page 188
Map: Indian Land Areas, 1965	pages 14–15