
Contents

Preface ix

PART I THE 'BLACKAMOORES'' PRESENCE
(1555-1900)

- 1 Profits, Slavery and the Black Poor 1
The rise of African slavery
Profits
Pets and domestic servants
Liberty
Free black voices
Enemies and friends
The struggle of the black poor
- 2 Black Radicals and Black Women in Service 19
Robert Wedderburn
William Davidson
William Cuffay
Mary Prince: slave and 'servant'
Mary Seacole: 'nurse and doctress'
- 3 Post-Emancipation Developments: Indentureship and the Rise of Pan-Africanism 36
The Indian diaspora: 'a new system of slavery'
Pan Africanism: origins and early development

PART II THE 'BLACK MAN'S BURDEN' (1900-1962)

- 4 Britain, Empire and Labour 59
- East Indian labour: the abolition of indentureship
 - The British labour movement and imperialism
 - Cardiff: black seamen and soldiers
 - Liverpool: 'negro' workers and race relations
- 5 The League of Coloured Peoples and Black Radical Groups 100
- Harold Moody: black moderate (founder and leader of the LCP)
 - The formation of the League
 - The LCP: development and issues
 - The Cardiff crisis: local organisations and the LCP
 - The League and other black groups
 - Pan Africanists in the twentieth century
- 6 The Development of a Black Radical Ideology 143
- The black intelligentsia in Britain during the 1920s and 1930s
 - Indian nationalism
 - The radicalisation of Pan Africanism
- 7 Post-war Immigration: Racism, Riot and Legislation 187
- Housing
 - Employment
 - The riots of 1958
 - Reactions: prelude to control
 - Racial tension
 - Post-riots organisations
 - The General Election
 - Liberal groups
 - The door is shut

PART III THE BLACK WORKING CLASS (1962-1986)

- 8 Capitalism, Class, Black Workers and Racial Disadvantage 233
- Migrant labour and capitalism in Western Europe
 - The black community: urban deprivation
- 9 The Black Workers' Industrial Struggle 256
- Industrial relations: the colonial context
 - Racial disadvantage in employment
 - Racial discrimination in employment
 - The struggle against the employers and trade unions
 - Black Caribbean women: nurses and ancillary workers
 - The textile industry
 - Black workers and the trade unions
 - Black workers and the trade unions: the British experience

In principle: TUC policy and resolutions
In practice: the disillusionment of black workers (alternative organisations)
Capitalism and curbs on discrimination
The black workers' response
10 Organisers and Organisations	370
Black Power and its advocates
Liverpool: 'Negro' associations
Asian workers' associations
The Asian workers' struggle and the IWAs 1968–1981
The Standing Conference of West Indian Organisations
Organisation from the top: CARD
The collapse of CARD
West Indian organisations in Moss Side and Easton
Black churches
Black organisations: the 1970s and 1980s
11 Black Working Class Consciousness	457
Black youth: the oppressed seen as a social problem
Racism and sexism
Black feminist responses
Gender, race and class
The oppressor: Blacks and the police
The police against the people
The police and the community
Race, class and autonomy
Black consciousness: spontaneous crowd violence
Black revolt
Conclusion
APPENDIX I Aims and Objects of the IWA–GB	509
APPENDIX II Organisations Affiliated to the West Indian Standing Conference in 1966	511
APPENDIX III The Aims and Objects of the Campaign Against Racial Discrimination	513
APPENDIX IV Organisations That Sent Delegates or Observers to the National Founding Convention of CARD in July 1965	514
APPENDIX V Black Women's Groups and Organisations	516
List of Abbreviations	518
References	523
Bibliography	559
Index	606