

Table of contents

Acknowledgements	vii
Introduction.....	xi
Augustin Simo Bobda
 Part I
Language planning and other sociolinguistic issues	1
Leadership trajectories in the language planning process	3
Joshua A. Fishman
Language conflict seen from the viewpoint of the rationalist and romantic models.....	11
René Dirven and Martin Pütz
The sustainability of South Africa's pluralist language policy	29
Vic Webb
Promotion and sustenance of multilingualism: Partnership between the private sector and the government	55
Kembo Sure
Globalization and African languages: Regression in linguistic diversity.....	71
Pius N. Tamanji
Ecosystem of the Vute-Banyo area and language endangerment	95
Ngessimo M. Mutaka

Part II

Features of African languages 111

Tone assignment on nominal forms in Bakoko 113
Michel Kenmogne

Yoruba vowel patterns: Asymmetries through phonological competition 125
Douglas Pulleyblank

Part III

Varieties of English 159

Predictability of word stress in African English: Evidence from Nigerian
 English and Cameroon English 161
Augustin Simo Bobda

Discourse and self-validation as hallmarks of advertisement 183
Paul Mbangwana

Local emplacement and global identities in signboard and billboard literacies in urban Gambia 197
Kasper Juffermans

Compiling an exclusive dictionary of West African English: A report on work in progress 221
Lothar Peter and Hans-Georg Wolf

Subject Index 235